Vital Months Ahead

Looming ahead is one of the most crucial testing periods in the history of the record business. So many innovations of great consequence will be thrust on the music scene in the months ahead that their success or failure will vitally affect the conduct of the business for years to come.

The fall-winter period will be one of tremendous interest, if not anxiety for the new market of stereo tape cartridges, particularly the eight track versions. Virtually all labels have committed their top-selling catalogs to 8-track cartridges, anticipating the entrance of the General Motors and Chrysler auto companies as suppliers to their customers of factory-installed 8-track players on, of course, an optional basis. One industry source estimates that a great deal of the auto tape player picture will come into focus by the end of the year. It is imperative, the source indicates, that there be somewhere between 700,000 and 1,000,000 Lear-type players in cars before the New Year is ushered in (some 275,000 units are already in use). But, as we have stated here before, the stereo tape cartridge field cannot be the success some circles seem to guarantee if its scope is to be limited solely to auto entertainment. Therefore, intense interest will be directed toward the sales of home units that are compatible with the auto player. All factors close to the cartridge field now concede that in-home sales are an absolute necessity in order to secure a worthwhile future for this phase of the industry. To its credit, the music business has provided product—in terms of recorded material and relatively low-priced slave and self-sufficient player units for the home—and merchandising concepts that afford the tape cartridge every chance to make it.

Perhaps as important in the day-to-day sales of recorded material will be the vast new exposure vistas offered by the FCC directive—to officially take effect Jan. 1—that requires radio outlets in major markets with AM and FM transmissions to provide non-duplicated programming on a 50% basis. A number of stations are already underway in complying with this new format, with some, such as WOR-FM in New York, making a 100% change in format. A "talk" station on AM, WOR swings with the beat generation on FM broadcast. With the drastic reduction in prices of AM/FM radios, the nature of this dual programming could break the ice of tight programming of singles records that now exists. The upcoming fall-winter season will tell the story.

Industry eyes will also be cast upon a number of new distribution associations, such as Victor's deal with the new Colgems label operation of Columbia Pictures and that of ABC Records with the disk arm of 20th Century Fox Pictures. The fruits of both deals will soon hit the market.

The Victor-Colgems deal involves music from the new "Monkees" TV series, video's first situation series to involve a musical group. It could be a strong, trend-setting boon for disk sales.

Attention to the area of Broadway musicals will also be a special concern, for a lot of money was lost by labels that had a stake in the disastrous 1965-66 season.

It is said that the night has a thousand eyes. The music industry needs this all-encompassing view of the exciting panorama of events coming its way.

Gortikov Named Senior VP, New Post, At Capitol

HOLLYWOOD — The newly-created post of senior vp of operations at Capitol Records is being filled by Stan Gortikov, who will continue as president of Capitol Records Distributing Corp.; the label's sales organization.

In addition to assuming certain administrative and operational responsibilities, mainly in the areas of manufacturing, personnel, industrial relations and subsid label operations, Gortikov will have reporting to him the following execs who previously were responsible directly to Alan Livingston, president of the label: George Jones, vp of manufacturing and engineering; Robert Franz, administrator of industrial relations; and Gordan Fraser, president of Tower Records, a subsid label.

STANLEY GORTIKOV

Best Fiscal Year

Livingston, in announcing the Gortikov appointment, noted that Capitol had completed its most successful year in history, both in sales volume and profits. "It is our aim to escalate this growth trend even more rapidly in the immediate future through an aggressive program of expansion and product diversification," Livingston said. "I am most anxious to devote more of my own time and effort to the day-to-day involvment in a number of present activities."

Although a part of disk scene for only six years, Gortikov has achieved a reputation as one of the industry's most prominent and outspoken figures. He joined Capitol in Feb., 1960, as director of corporate development. In July of that year, he was elected CRDC vp of merchandising. Later, he was named vp and general manager, and in June of 1964, he was promoted to president of CRDC.

A planned career in journalism was interrupted by Army service in World War II. Drafted as a Private, Gortikov rose to the rank of Lieutenant at the age of 25, youngest officer of that rank to serve with an Infantry Division General Staff.

After the war, Gortikov entered the advertising and marketing fields in Los Angeles, serving for eleven years in a variety of executive posts with one of the West Coast's largest apparel-manufacturing firms.

Besides handling UA's promo staff and that of its distribs across the country, Turoff will spearhead an "all-out" UA drive for new masters, embarking soon on a nationwide visit to indie producers in this regard. A 20 year music business veteran, Turoff comes to UA after serving as west coast and, more recently, east coast promo director of London Records. His other associations included stints with Roulette Records, Alpha Distributors in New York and Music Publishers Holding Corp. He'll headquarter at UA's headquarters at 799 Seventh Ave., this city.

Lennon, Quote Author Explain 'Popularity' Remark As Beatles Arrive In The States

NEW YORK—As the Beatles arrived last week (11) to start their latest American tour, attempts were made to pave a smoother road for their journey, partially obstructed by a now famous John Lennon remark.

British columnist Maureen Cleave, author of the bombshell quote of Lennon's wherein the Beatleite stated that his group was "more popular than Jesus," has gone on record as declaring that her article, which appeared in a British fan magazine, Datebook, had "been completely misinterpreted and that Americans have the story in entirely wrong." The remark had a number of deejays, especially in the south, up-in-arms, leading to a banning of Beatles' disks on a number of stations and attempts to create bonfires out of the group's disks and various mementos.

Lennon Statement

At a press conference last Thursday (11) in Chicago, Lennon declared he was "sorry" about his remark, but stood pat on his belief that the group was more popular than Jesus. But, he explained, his intention in making this remark was to deplore the decline in religious enthusiasm. "I'm not anti-God, anti-Christ or anti-religion. I was not saying we are greater or better." Fellow Beatleite George Harrison added: "I know him. He believes in Christianity. But I do agree with him that Christianity is on the wane. The group was set to start their latest American tour last Friday (12) at Chicago's International Amphitheater.

According to the original interview, Lennon was quoted as following: "Christianity will go. It will vanish and shrink. We're more popular than Jesus now; I don't know which will go first—rock 'n roll or Christianity."

In a transatlantic interview with disk jockey Clark Race of Westinghouse radio station KDKA (Pittsburgh, Pa.), Miss Cleave said that Lennon's remarks were "taken out of context and did not accurately reflect the article or the subject as it was discussed."

Miss Cleave said that what actually transpired was a lengthy conversation between her and Lennon in which the subject of Christianity was discussed during the course of the interview. Lennon, according to Miss Cleave, observed that the "power of

The Monkees: Swingin' To The Rhythm Of The Day For Records & Television

NEW YORK—The Monkees are about to leap on the musical as well as the television screen. The newly formed Colgems label, together with RCA Victor have prepared the release of the group's first single. "Last Train to Clarksville" b/w "Take A Giant Step," for this week. The selections were written by Tommy Boyce-Bobby Hart and Carole King-Gerry Goffin, respectively. Both teams are exclusive writers for the Screen Gems-Columbia Music Publishing Company.

The announcement of the Monkees' first release was made jointly by Don Kirshner, head Colgems label and Norman Racusin, division vice president and operations manager of the Victor label. Kirshner, who is also president of the Columbia Pictures-Screen Gems TV Music Division, will supervise the Monkees' musical activities and is also musical consultant for their TV series which debuts on NBC-TV, Sept. 12, 7:30-8:00 p.m. EDT, the prime time slot formerly occupied by "Hullabalo," the teen variety show.

The weekly, half-hour series, produced by Robert Rafelson and Bert Schneider of Raybert Productions, concerns the "adventures" of an unknown, young, long-haired, Mod-garbed singing group, and will introduce two new songs on each segment. On screen, and off, the boys are English-born Davy Jones (who has appeared on Broadway in "Oliver!" and "Pickwick"), Micky Dolenz (who has appeared in the TV series "Circus Boy" for three years), Peter Tork (ex-folk singer from Greenwich Village), and Michael "Wool Hat" (he's rarely without it) Nesmith, who has been singing his own songs and traditional folk music in California cafes.

Supporting the release of the Monkees' first single, in anticipation of the TV series debut, is an extensive promotion and merchandising campaign.

The Victor Monkees' campaign,

Stanley Mills To E. B. Marks As Gen. Prof. Manager

NEW YORK—Stanley Mills has been named the new general professional manager at E B. Marks Music, according to an announcement by the firm's president, Herbert E. Marks. The son of veteran music man Jack Mills, he is the last of the Mills family to leave his father's firm following its acquisition by Utilities & Industries, Inc. At Marks, he will succeed Arnold Shaw.

Stanley Mills had been the general professional manager of Mills and previously held the same title at its affiliate B. F. Wood Music.

By coincidence he was a classmate ('53) of Herbert Marks' son-in-law at Swarthmore. After college, he served in the Army as a disk jockey for the Far East Radio Network in Japan, and upon his release immediately joined his family firm.

Deejay Attempts New Motion To Dismiss Husky's Suit

LOS ANGELES—Walter Hurst, defense attorney for San Diego deejay Chuck Daugherty, is scheduled to go before the Superior Court in Los Angeles (Dept. 66) on Aug. 17 in another attempt to have the two year old allegation of payola case dismissed. Recent motion to have the case dismissed for lack of prosecution was denied by Judge James Whyte. The new motion, filed by Hurst, is a technical one, requesting summary judgement and contending that no evidence has yet been released which ties Daugherty to the allegations.

TOP 100 CORRECTIONS

Please note corrections on this week's Top 100 chart: number 5 should read "Mother's Little Helper"; number 6, with a red bullet, should be "Sunshine Superman," jumping from that position from number 17; should be "Pied Piper."

Due to a printer's error these titles were transposed.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

In reference to a minor controversy developing over statements allegedly made by John Lennon of the Beatles concerning the popularity of the Beatles as compared to Christianity, Arnold C. Kaufman, vice president and general manager of WFUN-Miami and Dick Starr, program director of the same outlet, had the following joint comment: "WFUN radio will continue to play records recorded by the popular music group, the Beatles, and this decision is based solely on this group's proven musical talent. Radio station WFUN-Miami is interested in providing its listeners with the most popular music, and if this music is provided by the Beatles or any other musical talent, it will be played by WFUN-Miami, providing it is in good taste and in our opinion worthy of airplay. The personal and private views of recording artists have no bearing on the potency of their individual talents. This is applicable to all entertainers in every phase of show business." The outlet will highlight daily news coverage of the Beatles' current American tour. As the British rock group travels throughout our country, Bess Coleman will accompany their official press party and report to the station.

Frank Milton Smith, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Capitol Cities Broadcasting Corp., died Saturday (6) of a heart attack in Baltimore. The 56-year-old exec was returning from Durham, N.C., where he had attended the funeral of Harmon Duncan, a vice president of the corporation. Smith was an innovator in the entertainment and broadcasting fields, having helped to bring three-dimensional photography to the "Silver Screen" as well as having been an organizer of the Cinerama Corp. Before starting the Capitol Cities Broadcasting Corp., he managed WCDA-Albany, N.Y., a UHF TV outlet. Early in his radio career, Smith had been general manager of WLW-Cincinnati. He was business manager for Lowell Thomas, a position that he held until his death. Smith is survived by his wife, Lisa Smith; his son, Randall; his daughter, Helen Vieser; and three grandchildren.

On the heels of local "dope" raids and expressions of alarm about the use of LSD by young people of the area, KDKA-Pittsburgh is running a three-day series of broadcasts designed to shed light on addiction. The program, entitled "Just For Kicks," will cover the subject via capsule features throughout the series plus a wrap-up documentary. The wrap-up will be followed by a "Contact" program that features a former addict answering calls from listeners. Many persons will be heard in interviews with George Barbour, newsman for the outlet, who has been preparing the series for a year. John Michaels will introduce the features. Hal Cessna, the outlet's news director, is producer of the feature. Perhaps this feature and others like it will help to end the needless suffering now rampant . . . due, in many cases, to a lack of proper and factual education concerning depressants, stimulants, and hallucigenics.

WLIB-FM-New York, an all jazz outlet, has extended its broadcasting hours to a noon to 1:00 am schedule, adding five-hours to its log. With the new schedule, Ed Williams opens up, Billy Taylor follows from 4:00 to 7:30 pm, and Del Shields picks up an extra hour to go until midnight.

WXYZ-Detroit has been singled out for credit as being a major factor in Michigan's efforts to eradicate common measles. Michigan, in Jul., became the second state in the Union to require measles inoculation for beginning school children. The outlet has been praised for its strong editorial backing of the bill. Michigan State

FALLING?: Date recording artists, London and the Bridges, are not falling down. They are building up a rather substantial reputation. The group is shown here in the company of deejay Jerry G. The photo was taken during a lull in the taping of WKYC-Cleveland TV'er. London and the Bridges were in Cleveland as part of a promo tour on behalf of their current Date release, "Tell It To The Preacher." Perhaps the old nursery rhyme will be re-written now that it is obvious that this "bridge" isn't falling down, despite the adage to the contrary.

Representative Joseph M. Sndyer made note that on four occasions the bill appeared close to dying on the House floor but each time editorials from the outlet renewed interest in its passage. The legislation follows a new awareness among medical and public health authorities that measles is not merely an innocent childhood ailment. Research in recent years has suggested that measles (Rubeola) may be a major factor in mental retardation, hearing and sight loss, as well as other permanent impairments. Despite the fact that "effective measles vaccine was developed more than three years ago, it is estimated that less than half of the nation's children are now immune to the disease."

WDAF-Kansas City, Mo. recently held its Second Annual Golden Circle Sports Car Rally in which 79 cars participated. The two-day rally consisted of four different events: a Skelley Economy Run, an all-day Gimmick Rally, old-fashioned fun Gymkhana, and a Concours D'Elegance. The annual event is conducted in cooperation with the Kansas City Region of the Sports Car Club of America.

SPUTTERS: Craig Denny, who spins 'em for KACY-Oxnard, Cal., says that the outlet is now on the air 24 hrs. daily. . . . Skitch Henderson is co-hosting the "Mike Douglas Show" and is commuting via helicopter to the "Tonight Show." . . . Richard Fryklund is in Viet Nam to broadcast reports to KING-Seattle. . . . Jay Manning has been named news director and Gary Alexander has been named public relations director of WFAS-AM/FM-White Plains, N.Y.

VITAL STATISTICS: WKYC-Cleveland has added Fred Briggs, Walter Sanders, and Edward Karow to its news staff. Briggs comes from WSB-TV-Atlanta, Ga.; Sanders comes from WDAS-Philadelphia; and Karow is from KSTP-Minneapolis/St. Paul. . . . Rex Miller has left WUBE-Cincinnati for WNOX-Knoxville. . . . Richard Learman, formerly of ABC, has joined Dick Clark Production as associate producer of "Where The Action Is."

HOWEVER, HIS ART AND WHAT HE SAID IS STILL ALIVE.
NO ONE NEED ANY LONGER BE SUBJECTED TO UNFAIR INTIMIDATION FOR SELLING LENNY BRUCE ALBUMS——LENNY CAN NO LONGER POINT THE
FINGER OF TRUTH AT ANYONE. IN HIS OWN WORDS,

HIS LAST ALBUM "LENNY BRUCE IS OUT AGAIN"

IT WILL, WITHOUT QUESTION, TELL YOU EXACTLY
WHERE LENNY WAS AT BEFORE HIS UNTIMELY DEATH.
AFTER LISTENING, YOU TOO WILL REALIZE THAT AMERICA'S FOREMOST, AND CERTAINLY MOST TRUTHFUL PHILOSOPHER IS GONE.

AS IT IS SO VERY APPARENT IN HIS LAST

BEHIND THE RECORDS

IT IS high time that we gave thanks to the nation's deejays who are performing an invaluable service for music publishers and recording companies by bringing to their attention talent from their area—talent which otherwise might never have had the opportunity to be heard by publishers and recording companies.

A case in point is Dave Prince of WXYZ, Detroit. About two years ago, Mr. Prince wrote us about Billy Lee & The Rivieras, a group appearing at Record Hops around Detroit. He was so impressed with their ability that he felt it his duty to help them. He waxed so enthusiastic about the boys that we agreed to hear them. We liked what we heard and signed them. The rest is musical history, the group now known as Mitch Ryder and The Detroit Wheels has soared to stardom. As for Dave Prince, he derives much satisfaction in the realization that he discovered a stellar group, and knowing that that is truly a great judge of talent.

There are other cases where deejays have discovered writers, musicians, and singers, and have done much to help them. This speaks well for the radio personalities of the USA who feel a sense of responsibility toward their listeners. So, we say thank you one and all, you dedicated people in radio wherever you are.

TALENT ON STAGE

SIMON & GARFUNKEL MAMAS & PAPAS

NEW YORK—Folk fans, rock addicts, teens, young adults and old adults swarmed into the Forest Hills Tennis Stadium eagerly anticipating the Aug. 6 episode of the Forest Hills Music Festival, headlining Simon & Garfunkel and the Mamas & Papas. As a result of a handful of badly behaved members of the audience, thousands of viewers left the show somewhat disappointed.

Emceed by WMCA rock jockey "Dandy Dan" Daniels, the show was kicked off by the folk-oriented Columbia duo, who displayed a surprising amount of polish and aplomb. Soundwise and material-wise, Simon and Garfunkel were in top form, and there is no doubt that the audience was completely taken by the performance. Their repertoire, mostly penned by Paul Simon, ranged from the social comment (e.g. "Sounds of Silence" and "Dangling Conversation") through rock ("Red Rubber Ball") to comedy satire (("They Call Me A Teenage Moron" and "Wee Wee").

The second half of the show featured the Mamas and Papas, whose musical impact is at least equalled by their colorful visual impact. The foursome, complete with new Mama, Jill Gibson, offered a contagious rock session which was completely made up of their previously recorded material, including their two Dunhill million sellers, "Monday, Monday" and "California Dreamin'." Unfortunately, the performance was marred by a knot of hecklers, who constantly interrupted the act, much to the annoyance of several thousand others in the audience. The show came to an unscheduled conclusion when a dozen or more youngsters raced onto the field toward the group on stage, only to be circumvented by an alert police force. The Mamas & Papas displayed fine showmanship at that time, continuing with the number which they were doing when the incident erupted, and quietly leaving the stage rather than becoming an unwitting catalyst for further incidents.

KETTY LESTER

LOS ANGELES—This former San Francisco State College music major is one of many scuffling talents in our industry currently touring the Playboy circuit. Waiting in the wings for that elusive chart title that could cultivate more lucrative if not fashionable surroundings.

Until the real thing comes along Miss Lester makes the most of her downstairs Living Room lounge date at this strip address with a repertoire that includes "a medley of my hit" ("Love Letters") along with a batch of ballad standards ("I'm A Fool To Want You", "Shadow of Your Smile") which get the full warmth of her occasionally over stylized saccharized sound. "Shadow of Your Smile" becomes "Sha-DOW of Your Smile" and the last note of each lyric line is inevitably held almost vise-like and almost always too long. For Lester demonstrates, particularly with her more rhythmical offerings, that she has few peers when she forgets the frills and concentrates on a less affected approach. Stripped of her marshmallow frosting she's a superior songbird.

Add an almost evil laugh, a self confident air and some salutary backing from Joe Parnello and his trio and you've got a stimulating thirty-five minute stand-up stint.

Miss Lester's current album is "When A Woman Loves A Man" and it's on the Tower label. With the right vehicle and less mannered direction she could be a towering artist.

HENRY MANCINI ANDY WILLIAMS

NEW YORK—With the opening bars of his exciting "Peter Gunn" theme, Henry Mancini set the stage for a highly charming package of good music at the Forest Hills Music Festival, as he and Andy Williams teamed up to give several thousand ticket-holders their full dollar's worth.

The RCA Victor orchestra, which certainly ranks as one of the top middle-of-the-road ensembles in the business, and which is led by unquestionably one of the most gifted arranger-conductors on the contemporary scene, gave out with the delightful strains of one Mancini-penned goodie after another, including most of his TV and film themes. His sumptuous bill of fare was highlighted by such well-knowns as "Mr. Lucky," "Baby Elephant Walk," "The Sweetheart Tree" and "Pink Panther," as well as one of his most recent compositions, "Swing March," taken from his film score, "What Did You Do In The War, Daddy," and a medley of his Academy Award winners.

By the time Andy Williams opened his portion of the show with his theme song, "Moon River," the crowd was completely warmed up and in a highly responsive mood. From the romantic setting of "More" to the farcical country humor of "In The Summertime," the Columbia songster displayed that same insight and control which has kept him and his weekly video variety show such a favorite among TV audiences. Other choice items on the Williams menu came from his solid catalog of hits which includes "Hawaiian Wedding Song" and "Dear Heart."

LANA CANTRELL

HOLLYWOOD—There is an insolent promise in both Lana Cantrell and her opening number at the Cocoanut Grove. This 22 year old, angular-framed piquant-faced Miss out of Sidney, Australia sings "Nothing Can Stop Me Now," a song you may recall which contains the invasive phrase "I'm going to stand the world on its ear." It is offered with such compelling authority and electric intensity that it is difficult to disagree with its premise.

Although far from beautiful, she achieves a transposition to both beauty and grace which is not immediate but it is no less definite. It is achieved without mirrors by an almost disdainful but inventive approach to her repertoire. "Let Yourself Go," a former rhythm tune from an old Astaire-Rogers film, is offered as a torch ballad, a treatment which we are sure would surprise Irving Berlin, its creator. "I'm All Smiles" opens and closes to a lonely base figure and again is quite the opposite intent of its author. A haunting Revel approach. Her initial RCA Victor single song, Charles Aznavour's "Stay" is whispered at first then belted to the upper reaches of the room as a shattering reminder that Cantrell can exhibit range, depth and maturity. "You Better Love Me" is offered at a break neck pace and is as aggressive a version of this song as you will ever hear.

Chances are that Cantrell will be compared to a Streisand or a Judy Garland by a number of well meaning reviewers. She can be. But only because, like them she has a communicable disease called showmanship.

It is doubtful if Cantrell can be stopped—or topped—by any of the newer talents of the nightclub tour today.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Donovan

Donovan Leitch is the real name. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland on Feb. 10, 1946. At the age of 3, Donovan was caught up in a Polio epidemic but pulled through "in the hands of a white-haired professor." He left college to roam and wander. Roam and wander he did, often in the company of kazoo player Gypsy Dave. Together they travelled throughout the British Isles . . . even up to the Yorkshire Coast of the North Sea to sing and write on the beaches of St. Ives for a while. Donovan sometimes indulged in the ancient (and, in England, honorable) tradition of "busking," which is the custom of playing on a street-corner and passing the hat. He appeared on the British "Ready Steady Go" TV'er before he had a recording contract.

Donovan's first American appearance was on the "Shindig" TV'er in the summer of 1965. He is currently riding the Top 100 with "Sunshine Superman" on the Epic logo, which is number 6 this week.

Barry Mann

Born in Brooklyn, Barry acquired an appreciation of music from his mother's side of the family. He had classical piano lessons as a youngster but soon discovered that he could play by ear. At the age of 12, he began composing his own music. He wanted to be an architect and music remained only a hobby until he quit college after 1-year at the Pratt Institute. Barry is now 26 and married to Cynthia Weil who is 24. They have collaborated on many compositions, including the Righteous Brothers' "You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling" and the Ronettes' "Walking In The Rain." Other titles to their credit are: Jody Miller's "Home Of The Brave," Jay and the Americans' "Only In America," and the Animals' "We Gotta Get Out Of This Place." Barry said, "It's important to believe what you're writing, we don't start out just to write a 'message' song."

Meeting The Roster

Liberty Records president, Al Bennett, and vice-president Bob Skaff, spent a week in New York as a follow-up to their recent sales convention in Chicago. Among their activities were to be introduced to contract artists of their recently acquired jazz label, Blue Note, by its founder Al Lion. Among the artists they met of the Blue Note roster were Horace Silver, Stanley Turrentine, Joe Henderson and John Patton. Standing (left to right) in the above pic are Skaff, Al Lion, Horace Silver and Bob Skaff.

Gorgoni Appointed To Writing Staff At April/Blackwood

NEW YORK—Al Gorgoni has joined the staff of writers exclusively inked to Blackwood Music, which is part of the April/Blackwood Pubbery. April/Blackwood's Gerry Teifer (director) and David Rosner (professional manager) noted, in announcing Gorgoni's appointment, that "Al Gorgoni is recognized as a leading member of today's young and talented songwriters."

Gorgoni is a member of the Just Us duo that recently had success with "You Can't Grow Peaches On A Cherry Tree" on the Kapp logo.

Dusty Springfield Tour In Planning Stage

CHICAGO—Dusty Springfield, whose Aug. tour of the U.S. was cancelled because of the airlines strike, is making arrangements for another U.S. tour, tentatively set for Sept. This tour by the Philips' lark would follow the release of her upcoming single "All I See Is You," a deck made specifically for the American market and not released in the United Kingdom. The songstress is vacationing on Gibralter at present.

CRDC Appoints Faulkner

NEW YORK—Jay Faulkner has been appointed to the newly-created post of assistant national credit manager of Capitol's distributing arm, it was announced by Russell E. Vail, CRDC's national credit manager. In his new capacity, Faulkner will assist Vail in the administration of the nation-wide credit system and, additionally, will continue in his present responsibilities as manager of the western regional credit office.

Faulkner joined CRDC in the summer of 1963, as Los Angeles regional credit manager.

Tammy Lynn Inks Linda Carol

NEW YORK—Linda Carol has signed a recording contract with Tammy Lynn Records, it was announced last week by Jerry Tobias, president of the diskery. The label is a subsidiary of Tammy Lynn Publishing. Tobias, who also owns the music firm, is part of a family known for such tunes as "Don't Sit Under The Apple Tree" and "The Old Lamplighter." The lark, who is currently appearing at the Doric Mission Inn in Los Angeles, will have her first deck released in Aug. The waxing will be produced by Jerry Tobias.

Carillon Productions Bows

NEW YORK—Jack Jones has formed Carillon Productions to package presentations in the variety field under his own banner. The singer has also set up Caber Corp. to produce shows especially for TV. His recent engagement at the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas was set under the Carillon banner.

Jones is also in the process of forming a personal management firm to handle performers in the variety field. The companies have been set up under the aegis of Jones' business manager, Walter Prince, who will serve as vice president. Nick Sevano, the artist's personal manager, will be president of both corporations while George Wasson, attorney, serves as legal advisor.

It's The Bruthers

A story concerning a new RCA Victor disk group, the Bruthers, appearing in last week's issue incorrectly spelled their name. In addition, the date of their first release, "Bad Love" and "A Bad Way To Go," should have been reported as taking place this week. The foursome opened a two-week engagement at New York's Cheetah last Thursday (11).

Correction

Maribus Music is cleared through BMI, not ASCAP, as reported in last week's Best Bet review of David & Jonathan's Capitol disking of "Oh, My Word."

MGM Inks Buster Crabbe For 'Flash Gordon' LP

NEW YORK—MGM's Leo The Lion Records has signed Buster Crabbe to appear on one of their forthcoming releases titled "The Official Adventures of Flash Gordon."

Crabbe portrayed the role of Flash Gordon in a number of movie serials in the early forties. The serials are still being shown on television and have gained a new following with the advent of Batman on TV.

The album which is planned for release in Sept. will be part of the Leo The Lion "live-action" series devoted to the super-heroes.

Rock Group Contest Being Held On Coast

LOS ANGELES — "Good" response has been reported for "the official Rock and Roll Band Championship, western region," to be held from Aug. 1 to Sept. 2 at Pacific Ocean Park, Santa Monica. Some 250 different bands, made up of over a thousand young musicians, are expected to take part in the huge competition, which is jointly sponsored by P.O.P, the Tea Council of the U.S.A., and Vox Guitars & Amplifiers.

Winners of the west coast competition will receive $5,000 worth of Vox equipment and will be flown to the Music Circus in Lambertville, N. J., to compete with regional winners from all parts of the country for the national championship on Sept. 4.

Kapp Execs Back In N.Y.; Label Bows Three LP's

NEW YORK—Kapp Records' flying sales team returned to their New York home base last week, following Fall product presentations to every Kapp distrib. The visits took place over a period of more than two weeks, and resulted in what sales vice president, Sid Schaffer, described as "the highest initial sales orders for any album release in the firm's history."

Noting that more than half the firm's distributors have already placed second and third reorders, Schaffer also announced a supplemental release of three additional albums to commence shipping on the 15th and to be added to the basic Fall release of 15 albums.

The three sets include one by Gunter Kallmann's Chorus with Orchestra and French maestro, Raymond Lefevre, has, "You Don't Have To Say You Love Me," and lastly, in the supplemental release is organist, John Gart's newest LP, "Back Home In Indiana."

But the excitement for the Kapp sales team was not limited to product reaction. The close-out visit of the presentation tour in Detroit last week was capped by a last-minute bomb scare aboard an aircraft about to take off for New York. Debarked from the plane along with the other passengers were Schaffer, A&R chief, Hy Grill; National Sales Manager, Joe Berger.

Musicor To Handle Dixon's Cheetah Label

NEW YORK—Musicor Records completed negotiations last week for the national distribution of Cheetah Records, owned by indie producer, Luther Dixon. Dixon, well-known for his string of producing successes for the Scepter label, produced the recent smash revival for the Platters, "I Love You 1,000 Times," as well as their new release, "Dervi," issued last week.

Cheetah will be released under the Musicor label with a separate Cheetah logo. First release will be by the well-known duo, Inez and Charlie Fox. A new group, the Pigeons, will also have a single out on Cheetah.

Dixon, who has just completed recording the Platters' follow-up single, "Dervi," for Musicor, will produce most of the upcoming recordings in Detroit, where he now lives.

Another project in which Dixon is busily engaged, is planning the sessions for Musicor by Eartha Kitt, who recently signed with the label.

Rendezvous Ballroom Burns

BALBOA, CAL. — The Rendezvous Ballroom, once a mecca of the big bands that had in more recent years catered to rock bands, was destroyed by fire on Sunday, Aug. 7. Ironically the last group to play the Rendezvous was a rock band known as the Cindermen.

Roland Kirk Released From Mercury Contract

CHICAGO—Roland Kirk has been released from his affiliation with the Mercury Record Corp. as of Aug. 1. The artist, who plans to free-lance for the present, is scheduled for an extended European concert tour which will begin in England. His European itinerary has not been definitely set as yet.

Rodgers & Parker In Dot Production Pact

HOLLYWOOD—Singer Jimmie Rodgers, who also holds an A&R position with Dot Records, and Dick Parker, bass player with the Shenandoah Trio, have entered a partnership to produce for the Dot logo. The first joint venture of the production pact is a rock single from Parker's pen entitled "What's Your Game." The deck, which was recorded by Craig Carr, is scheduled for immediate release.

Henry Tobias Music Forms

NEW YORK—Henry Tobias is consolidating his music pubberies into a single parent firm to be known as Henry Tobias Music Co. The ASCAP firm will control the publishing interests of Patore Music, Charlen Music, and PAT Records. Pick of the Week

FIDDLE AROUND (2:25) [Bourne ASCAP—Kusik, Ballard]

A SURFER'S DREAM (2:27)
[Screen Gems-Columbia BMI—Gibson, Altfeld]

JAN & DEAN (Liberty 55905)

Hot-on-the-heels of their recent "Popsicle" triumph, Jan and Dean come up with another sure-fire blockbuster. The "A" side here is called "Fiddle Around" and it's an infectious, easy-going, rhythmic thumper about a gal with a somewhat fickle temperament. "A Surfer's Dream" is a plaintive, slow-moving hauntingly lyrical romancer.

BAD LITTLE WOMAN (2:33)
[Bernice BMI—Tinsley, Catling, Demick, Armstrong, Rosbotham]

GOSPEL ZONE (3:15) [Yuggoth BMI—Schiffour]

SHADOWS OF KNIGHT (Dunwich 128)

The Shadows Of Knight seem destined to make it three-in-a-row (they've already hit with "Oh, Yeah" and "Gloria") with this splendid new Dunwich release, "Bad Little Woman." Side is a slow starting but dramatically-building hard-pounding blueser about an unfortunate fella who can't keep track of his gal. "Gospel Zone" is an infectious, rhythmic happy-go-lucky danceable item.

IT HURTS ME (2:26) [Unart BMI—Goldsboro]

PITY THE FOOL (2:15) [Unart BMI—Goldsboro]

BOBBY GOLDSBORO (United Artists 50056)

Bobby Goldsboro is an obvious cinch to add another strong link to his long hit-chain with this new UA release called "It Hurts Me." This one's a tender, chorus-backed effectively-building ode about a love-sick guy who can't bear to watch his ex-gal with another gal. The coupler, "Pity The Fool," is a slow-moving, funky blues-soaked tearjerker.

CHERISH (3:00) [Beechwood BMI—Kirkman]

DON'T BLAME THE RAIN (2:26) [Sherman-DeVorzon BMI—Addrisi]

ASSOCIATION (Valiant 747)

With "Along Comes Mary" neatly tucked under their belts, the Association have come up with another sure-fire money-maker. This one's called "Cherish" and it's an easy-going laconic soft 'n' sweet item about a lucky guy who has finally found the girl of his dreams. "Don't Blame The Rain" is a medium-paced, moody, shufflin' lament.

I SWEAR BY STARS ABOVE (2:42) [Pronto BMI—Bailey, Northern]

GET IN A HURRY (2:58) [Pronto BMI—Simon]

BEN E. KING (Atco 6431)

The veteran pop-r&b money-maker should strike sales paydirt 1-2-3 with this latest Atco success candidate, "I Swear By Stars Above." The tune's a plaintive, slow-shufflin' soulful ode about a guy who'll pull out all the stops for the right girl. "Get In A Hurry" is a catchy, medium-paced tale of rejection.

I GOT TO HANDLE IT (2:17) [McLaughlin & Gomba BMI—Browner]

ZIG-ZAGGING (2:23) [McLaughlin BMI—Storball]

CAPITOLS (Karen 1525)

The Capitols should certainly duplicate their recent pop-r&b smasheroo of "Cool Jerk" with this blue-ribbon follow-up called "I Got To Handle It." The side's a rollicking, pulsating raunchy thumper about a lad who has some serious romantic problems. "Zig-Zagging" is an infectious handclapper which intros a new teen dance.

I CAN MAKE IT WITH YOU (2:30) [Blackwood, BMI—Taylor]

Use Of Ramsey Lewis Trio Name Is OK'd By Judge

CHICAGO—Two former Ramsey Lewis Trio sidemen have lost a courtroom attempt to prevent the jazz pianist from performing and recording under the name "Ramsey Lewis Trio." Judge Donald J. O'Brien of the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, has ruled that the original partnership agreement between Lewis and Eldee Young and Isaac "Red" Holt has been superseded by a contract of employment made by the parties in Jan., 1966. That contract is an agreement between Young and Holt to become employed by a new company owned by Ramsey Lewis and perform under his sole direction and under such name as Lewis might approve.

Judge O'Brien ruled that under the law he could not restrain or prevent Lewis from freely using the professional name, Ramsey Lewis Trio. Lewis let the pair go, charging a breach of contract, last May, replacing them with bassist Cleveland Eaton and drummer Maurice White.

Sherrill Upped To Exec Producer At Epic/Okeh

NEW YORK—Billy Sherrill has been promoted to executive producer at Epic/Okeh Records, according to Len Levy, vice president of the operation.

Sherrill, whose headquarters are in Nashville, will continue to be responsible to Bob Morgan, Epic's director of A&R, for producing all of Epic's country-and-western albums and singles, as well as a great portion of the rhythm-and-blues product released on the Okeh Label.

Since joining Epic/Okeh in 1963, Sherrill has produced a number of hits by such artists as David Houston, Jim and Jesse, Charlie Walker, Billy Crammer, Stan Hitchcock, Major Lance and The Poppies. Sherrill also serves as co-producer, along with Manny Kellem, executive producer, of all single records by famed vocalist Nancy Ames.

Stogel Assoc. Celebrates Golden First Anniversary

NEW YORK—As far as Lenny and Myrna Stogel are concerned, the recent chart smash, "It Was A Very Good Year," might well have been written for his infant personal management firm, Leonard Stogel Assoc. The company just celebrated its first anniversary on Aug. 9 and its artists have already tucked away two gold records and more than ten million record sales throughout the world.

The firm began last year with one act, a new group called Sam The Sham and the Pharaohs, whose first record was an item called "Wooly Bully." In a very short space of time, "Wooly Bully" was resting comfortably on top of the charts, and was subsequently certified as a gold record.

As a result of the succes with Sam the Sham, the company almost immediately drew in another first-rate act, the Royalettes, whose first release with Stogel zoomed well up into the national charts. Next to hitch their wagon to the Stogel star were the Swingin' Medallions, whose "Double Shot" was another chart smash for the company.

Harris, Kiley For MGM's 'Leo' Logo

NEW YORK—Julie Harris and Richard Kiley have been signed by Leo The Lion Records to do a children's album about the fundamentals of acting. Both artists will sing and do dramatic highlights from literature on an album entitled, "Curtain Going Up," written by Ruth Roberts. The album is scheduled for Sept. release.

MYRNA & LENNY STOGEL

In the following months Leonard Stogel & Associates expanded rapidly, adding such acts as the Gants on Liberty, James Carr on Gold Wax, the Jones Boys on Atco, Van Dyke Parks on MGM, Rege Mull and the Spike Drivers to the roster.

A few weeks ago the firm added another brand new act, Napoleon XIV, whose debut Warner Bros. single, "They're Coming To Take Me Away, Ha Ha," was possibly the fastest-breaking record of the year. At the same time, Sam the Sham was climbing the charts with what became another chart-topper, "Lil' Red Riding Hood." The deck turned out to be another gold nugget for the group. The same week, James Carr came on the Cash Box charts at 100 with "Love Attack," giving the Stogel office the distinction of having the chart locked up at both ends.

In addition to its management interests, the firm is steadily building up its publishing outlets, which are being handled by Stogel's wife, Myrna.

"We're planning to open a California office by the first of the year," said Stogel, "and, although we'll always stay in the pop music field, we will enter all aspects of show business."

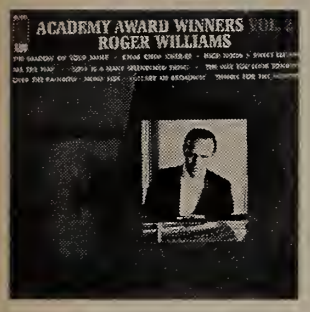
POP PICKS

I COULDN'T LIVE WITHOUT YOUR LOVE—Petula Clark—Warner Bros. W/WS 1645

Pet is on to some of the big hits of the day, enlisting them for her exciting brand of teen-oriented warbling. Add to the new musical formats for such items as "Strangers In The Night," "A Groovy Kind Of Love," "Bang Bang" and "Monday, Monday" the ever-colorful arrangements of Tony Hatch and Johnny Harris. This is electric music for the beat generation.

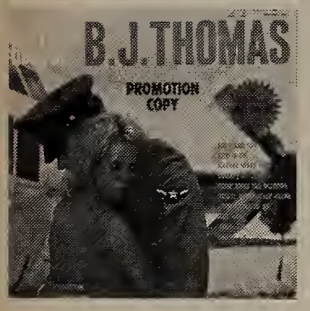
THE HIT SOUND OF DEAN MARTIN—Reprise R/RS 6213

Since making a strong comeback on the pop singles and albums charts two years ago, Dean Martin has been selling better than ever, and can expect to keep on in that red-hot vein with this album. Highlighted by his current hit, "A Million And One," the set is a tasty sampling of country-slanted grooves done up in the warm, appealing Martin style. Among the top tracks here are "I'm Living In Two Different Worlds" and "Terrible, Tangled Web," in addition to "Any Time."



ACADEMY AWARD WINNERS, VOL. 2—Roger Williams—Kapp KL 1483/KS 3483

A powerful catalog seller for the Kapp label, Roger has come up with an enchanting followup to his while-back chart collection, "Academy Award Winners." Featuring the latest Oscar winner, "The Shadow Of Your Smile," the session is lush, yet intimate performance of a whole range of Award items, including such winners as the years-back "High Noon" and the more recent "Chim Chim Cher-ee." Sturdy sales predicted.



THE VERY BEST OF B. J. THOMAS—Hickory LPM 133

Besides his hit side for Hickory, "Billy & Sue," B. J. Thomas offers a strong collection of teen themes, mostly carrying a strong rock beat, a few displaying a feelingful ballad style (e.g. "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "Comedy Of Love"). Whatever the expression, the artist is in complete command of his material. Cut by cut, a dynamic vocal presentation.

FANTASTIC FELICIANO — Jose Feliciano — RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3581

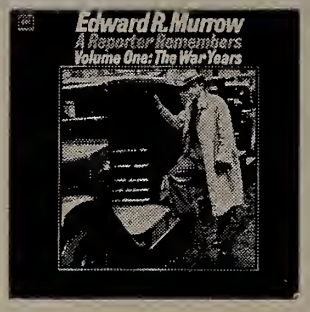
This album features the voice and guitar of Jose Feliciano as accompanied by a full orchestra. Neither folk nor jazz, Feliciano's latest LP is a romp through the pop field that features such tunes as: "Bye Bye Blackbird," "For Sentimental Reasons" (the artist's current single), "I Wish You Love," and "Goody Goody." Sure to receive a wide-range pop acceptance.

LBJ ROAST—Atco 33-192/SD 33-192

Kermit Schafer, famed for his overwhelming success with his radio-TV "Blooper" albums, has teamed up with Eddie Schaffer (no relation), president of the Miami Beach Footlighters Club for a wild comedy spoof. Poking fun at a host of famed political figures, the uproarious set takes the form of a mock luncheon for nation topper Lyndon Johnson, and features the actual voices of the president and his wife. An excellent item for comedy buffs.

THE INTIMATE VALENTE—Caterina Valente —London LL 3473/PS 473

One of the most versatile good music performers on the current scene, veteran Caterina Valente is always a sure-shot to attract a solid amount of buyers. The multi-talented songstress sings and strums a dozen fine tracks, mixing up both English and Portuguese melodies in a delightful musical potpourri. Middle-of-the-road spinners should pounce on the set, which features such tracks as "Moon River" and "Estrada Do Sol."



A REPORTER REMEMBERS—VOL. 1: THE WAR YEARS — Edward R. Murrow — Columbia O2L-332

A boxed, 2-record set containing live, taped broadcasts by Edward R. Murrow on the battle-fields of war-torn Europe during the early 1940's. Tracks include Murrow's coverage of: "Dunkirk," "Trafalgar Square Air Raid," "Arnhem Drop," "Berlin Raid," "D-Day," and "Piccadilly-VE Day." This package is a must for those interested in history or the gallant fight made by the British people to preserve their country.

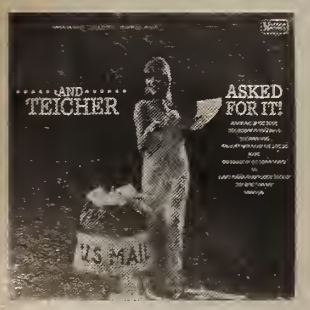
AMOR MEXICO/S.A.—Tony Mottola—Command RS-900SD

This is the follow-up to Tony Mottola's previous Command album, "Love Songs Mexico/S.A.," and it contains more of the fiery brilliance, and seductive rhythm so indigenous to Latin music. "Cuando Calienta El Sol (Love Me With All Your Heart)," "Recado Bossa Nova," "Vaya Con Dios," and "Peligro Bossa Nova" are among the more outstanding tracks. The set is likely to gain much favor with Latin music buffs as well as the artist's many fans.

THE HAPPENING—Fire & Ice, Ltd.—Capitol T/ST 2577

The first offering by Capitol's newly pacted Fire & Ice, Ltd., features 5-tunes entitled: "I Just Thought Of The Moon," "The House Of Saturn," "Star In Flight," "Summertime," "The Happening." The entire package is an excursion into the avant-garde with, what the group describes as "mind-manifesting music." As an extension of rock and folk/rock, this one should do well in the pop field.

POP BEST BETS



YOU ASKED FOR IT—Ferrante & Teicher—United Artists UAL 3526/UAS 6526

Ferrante & Teicher have won over a goodly portion of record buyers with their charming twin piano performances and promise to please most of those buyers with this set. Hollywood and Broadway, as well as recent chart items, highlight the bill of fare, with the dual keyboard virtuosos plunking out such winners as "The Ballad Of The Green Berets" and "Strangers In The Night," as well as "He." The package should be a healthy catalog piece.

PATTI PAGE'S GREATEST HITS—Columbia CL 2536/CS 9326

A vet pop favorite who has scored tremendous success with her good music outings, Patti Page offers a heap of her biggest smashes on this gilt-edged set. Digging way back into the past, the lark serves up one of her first hits, "With My Eyes Wide Open I'm Dreaming," as well as all of her certified million sellers, including "Tennessee Waltz" and "(How Much Is That) Doggie In The Window." An excellent offering, bound for big action among her many fans.

GODFREY CAMBRIDGE TOYS WITH THE WORLD—Epic FLM 13108/FLS 15108

Godfrey Cambridge has had such tremendous success in the night club and TV areas that he's a natural to build up a solid following in the world of wax. There's fun a-plenty in this package, as the laugh-maker spouts out a side-splitting routine aimed at such a variety of subjects as the KKK, discotheques and topless bathing suits. The comic takes nothing seriously, a fact which should delight many an album buyer.

LATIN PULSE—Nancy Ames—Epic LN 24189/BN 26189

Nancy Ames, constantly gathering a larger and larger following, swings into a Latin mood for what sounds like a healthy sales piece. Although most of the tunes in the set were hits in their original English language versions, the lark presents them in a strictly-south-of-the-border setting, with warm, Spanish-language lyrics and sultry, spice-filled ork arrangements. Included in the grooves are "Un Gusto A Miel (A Taste Of Honey), and "Ayer (Yesterday)."

LOU RAWLS
"...greatest soul singer of the '60's"
Lou Rawls is an artist whose deep-stirring performances move an audience with him no matter what he sings. From the low-sizzling sad blues to the finger-snapping ballads, Lou Rawls is one of the few who have made the transition from "fine singer" to "star." He has arrived. This new single is Lou Rawls in a perfect setting once again. It's his soul-sounds interpretation of Love Is A Hurtin' Thing.

POP BEST BETS

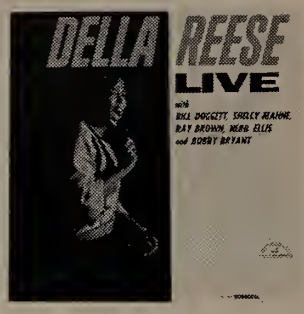
LSD—Capitol TAO 2574
The highly controversial world of psychedelic experiences is surveyed in this documentary LP from Capitol. The disk includes statements by such noted people as Dr. Timothy Leary, Allen Ginsberg and Dr. Sidney Cohen as well as recordings of people who are, or have been under the influence of various drugs. This set should find a ready market in all segments of the population.

MAN OH MAN!—The Womenfolk—RCA Victor LPM/LSP-3527
The Womenfolk are five young ladies who sing and play music, be it folk, or in the case of this set a combination of folk and pop, that should delight the group's fans and add new admirers to their following. Among the finely done tracks are "The Last Thing On My Mind," "Sunrise, Sunset" "Meditation" while the balance are also prime spinning items.

SOUL—Lena Horn—United Artists UAS-6496
Living up to its title, this latest offering by Lena Horn is full of "Soul." The lark gives her own special touch to such chestnuts as "Unchained Melody," and "The Old Mill Stream." Other blue ribbon tracks are "A Taste Of Honey," "Let The Little People Talk," and "Wonder What I'm Gonna Do." Both jazz and pop fans should go for this one.

THIS IS THE LIFE — Matt Monro — Capitol T/ST 2540
Matt Monro's debut album session for Capitol promises to be the basis of sturdy consumer reaction. With lush ork arrangements sweeping through the package, Monro offers a delightful and provocative selection, highlighted by the bright and sparkling "On A Wonderful Day Like Today," as well as the tender "Strangers In The Night" and the effervescent title track. There's loads of appeal here for middle-of-the-roaders.

SERGIO MENDES & BRASIL '66—A&M 116
Sergio Mendes, a highly popular exponent of Latin melodies, has teamed up with Brazil '66 for a highly engaging album offering. The jazz-Brazil-pop ensemble gives out with a sparkling assortment of goodies, generously flavored with rhythm, ranging from a torrid, turbulent "Daytripper" to an effervescent "One Note Samba/ Spanish Flea" and a pulsing "Going Out Of My Head." A wide range of consumers should dig this set.



DELLA REESE LIVE—ABC-Paramount ABC/ ABCS 569
Here's a wild session by Della Reese that should make a heap of spinners and buyers, in both the pop and jazz idioms, perk up their ears. The swinging Della Reese style is enhanced and augmented by intoxicating blues-jazz stylings of Bill Doggett, Gerald Wiggins, Ray Brown, Herb Ellis and Shelly Manne, with sophistication the high point of the LP. Fascinating tracks here include "Gotta Travel On" and "There Will Never Be Another You." An exciting album.

JAZZ PICKS

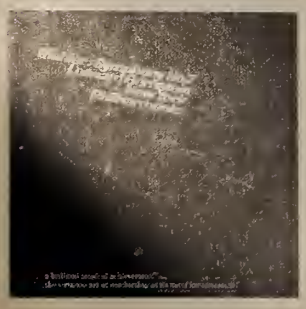
OUR MANN FLUTE—Herbie Mann—Atlantic SD 7464
The great Afro-Cuban jazz flutist goes to bat for Atlantic once more with a program of varied tunes that somehow are made to fit Mann's jazz thoughts to a "T." For example, there's "Fiddler On The Roof," "Skip To My Lou," "Frere Jacques" and several views from the Top 40 charts (e.g. "Monday Monday" and "Good Lovin"). Strings in the background are used in ventively. This is Mann with a light, happy touch.

MEDITATIONS—John Coltrane—Impulse A/AS 9110
This provocative extension to Johnny Coltrane's "A Love Supreme," composed by himself, is possibly one of the finest jazz packages ever recorded by the saxman. In addition to his usual sidemen, McCoy Tyner, Elvin Jones and Jimmy Garrison, Coltrane also features an extra drummer, Rashied Ali, and tenor sax, Pharoah Sanders, who team up for a shimmering and authoritative workout. Jazz buffs and Coltrane fans will go for this one.

SATCHMO AT SYMPHONY HALL — Louis Armstrong & All Stars—Decca
Decca Records has dug back into its voluminous vaults and come up with a delightful 2-record set by Louis Armstrong and the All-Stars, recorded "live" at Boston's Symphony Hall in 1947. A high-flying jazz performance, the LP features such names as Jack Teagarden, Barney Bigard, Dick Cary, Sidney Catlett, Arnell Shaw and vocalist Velma Middleton. Sales should equal the original SRO performance. Excellent cuts in "Muskrat Ramble" and " 'C' Jam Blues."

SEARCH FOR THE NEW LAND — LEE MORGAN—Blue Note 4169
The trumpeter, set against a backdrop of five other musicians, works his own material here, five pieces that give him the springboard for introspection and straightforward "in" swinging. On both counts, the blowing is sure. Backing him are Wayne Shorter (tenor sax), Grant Green (guitar), Herbie Hancock (piano), Reginald Workman (bass) and Billy Higgins (drums). Cut in Feb. of 1964, the recorded sound is excellent. More worthy stylings by a familiar face on the jazz scene.

CLASSICAL PICKS



MAHLER: SYMPHONY NO. 7—New York Philharmonic/Leonard Bernstein Columbia M2L-339/ M2S-739
A boxed, 2-record set enhanced by Maestro Bernstein's interpretation of the score and his control of the New York Philharmonic in bringing out the subtleties and power of the score. The "Scherzo" is a blue ribbon track. A must for those who follow the orchestra or those appreciating classical music in general.

BRAHMS: SYMPHONY NO. 4 — Vladimir Golschmann/Vienna State Orchestra—Vanguard Everyman Classics SRV-1881-SD
A masterful treatment of the last Brahms symphony by the Vienna State Orchestra under the baton of Vladimir Golschmann. The "Allegro Giocoso" and the "Ollegro Energico E Passionato" are outstanding tracks. This package is sure to be much sought after by enthusiasts of classical music.

Cash Box RECORD RAMBLINGS

NEW YORK:

A deejay in Birmingham, Ala. quoted two-lines from a five-page magazine article that concerned John Lennon of the Beatles. . . . thus the current Beatles controversy began. Some outlets dropped Beatles decks from playlists, others scheduled bonfires to burn everything connected with the group, Brian Epstein flew in from London for a press conference, and slowly the truth began to unfold. An error in judgment, a miss-quote, and a case of a rumor getting out of hand . . . all potentially devastating things.

The Pair Extraordinaire, Liberty recording duo, have been signed to their 10th major network TV appearance in 4-months. The "pair", currently running around the country handing out pears as a promo gimmick, is made up of Carl Craig and Marcus Hemphill. In addition to "The Milton Berle Show," to which The Pair Extrordinaire has just been signed, they are scheduled for appearances on "The Tonight Show," "The John Gary Show," "The Mike Douglas Show," 3 shots on "The Danny Kaye Show," "The Dean Martin Show," and the special "Where It's At."

the Four Lads for one-night engagements on an exclusive basis.

Tom Wilson, recording topper at MGM/Verve, has all kinds of irons in the fire but he isn't talking about them as yet. Judging from the success he has had with the Mothers of Invention on Verve (and in A&R'ing Bob Dylan while with Columbia), we can expect something a little out of the ordinary.

Carolyn Hester just finished a folk festival in Toronto and will play on the same bill as Simon & Garfunkel in Fairfield, Conn. on Sept. 10

The Bold is on the way down from Boston to open at the Mod on Long Island. Their first Cameo deck is "Gotta Get Some" b/w "Robin Hood."

The Young Rascals played to a full house of extremely enthusiastic fans at the Rheingold Central Park Music Festival last week (6).

The Kenny Burrell Quartet has just finished an engagement at Slugs' Saloon. Burrell's combo consists of Richard Wyands on piano, Martin Rivera on bass, and Bill English on drums. Burrell plays both electric and acoustic guitar. His most recent LP's, on Verve, are Guitar Forms" with Gil Evans' Band and "Blue Bash" with organist Jimmy Smith.

BITTER END SINGERS

FOUR SEASONS

WEE FOUR

Al Cecere, just in from Rochester, informs us that the Humans are in town to play concerts in Central Park's Wollman Memorial Ice Rink. The group, which records on the Audition label, will also do a "The Big World" spot while here in the city. Al also noted that the Wee Four will be in town to cut a master for Nu Sounds Ltd. The deck will be "Weird" b/w "Give Me A Try" and it is reportedly scheduled for Sept. release. ARC is handling promotion for both groups.

The Doodletown Pipers have been signed by producer Richard Lewine to appear on the "Rodgers & Hart Today" special in the "ABC Stage '67" TV series. The Doodletown Pipers will also appear on the "Where It's At" TV'er in Nov.

The Four Seasons have just completed a taping of an upcoming Murray the K Special for WOR-TV-New York. The group recently broke the house record at New Jersey's Steel Pier with a total attendance of 73,000 persons in 4-days.

Fred Weintraub's Bitter End cafe in Greenwich Village will be host to the Bitter End Singers through Aug. 20th. The Uncalled-For 3 and Jake Holmes will appear on the bill with the Bitter End Singers.

Jerry Ross of Merrec Distributing says that "Ain't Gonna Lie" by Keith and "Just Like A Woman" by Manfred Mann are doing well and that Dee Dee Warwick's Mercury outing is starting to get a lot of action. Jerry also noted that WWRL-New York is giving the Dee Dee Warwick record a lot of exposure.

Anthony & the Imperials will launch Ungano's discotheque "Celebrity Night" policy on Aug. 18 . . . The Pilgrims, the latest addition to the roster of William Kermit Smith Ltd., are currently packing 'em in at Ondine . . . The Boys Next Door are currently rocking the Phone Booth.

Ron Terry has noted that Capitol Booking Corp., aside from signing the Shades of Blue, has inked to represent

CHICAGO:

Alvin Cash, whose "Philly Freeze" (Mar-vel-ous) is very prominently displayed on the national charts, took off for Cleveland to appear at the Music Box (10-14). From there he heads for an 8/19-25 date in the Howard Theater (Washington) followed by a 9/1-8 stint at New York's Apollo. . . . Eva Dolin items that jazz star Roland Kirk, who formerly recorded for Limelight, departs for England shortly to begin an extended European concert tour. . . . Steve Lawrence, Edyie Gorme and Leslie Uggams guest on the "Gypsy" daytime TV'er this week. . . . Local lark Harriette Blake is reportedly getting picks all over the place with her new LTD outing "Unspoken Words". . . . Allstate's Cy Gold spotlights the red hot Atlantic label and current album entries "Our Man Flute" by Herbie Mann, who just wrapped up a swingin' stint at the Plugged Nickel here; "Wild Man On The Loose" by Mose Allison and "Mean Greens" by Eddie Harris. . . . The upcoming WBKB-TV special, "The Sound Of Ravinia", will feature Nancy Wilson, the Ramsey Lewis Trio, Roberta Peters, the Back Porch Majority, Seiji Ozawa and the Chgo. Symphony Orchestra in a diversified program ranging from jazz to the classics. Show is being produced by Jerry Gregoris. . . . Johnny Ray comes to town 8/21 to open at Ray Colomb's. . . . Promo man Erwin Barg tops his plug list with The Surfaris' "Wipe Out" (Dot), "Morning Means Tomorrow" by Jimmie Rodgers (Dot), Bonnie Guitar's "The Tallest Tree" (Dot) and Sonny Curtis' Viva offering "My Way Of Life". . . . Marguerite Piazza is in at the Empire Room. . . . Triangle Productions' topper Frank Fried, who swung into August with the Barbra Streisand

HOLLYWOOD:

We do wish that local public relations offices would consider the effects of daily communiques before submitting as fact what occasionally assaults credulity. Even Maxwell Smart would be hard put to suggest, for example, that a recent single which struggled to make the national top ten had "gone well past the 2 million figure." That's just one of several items which were offered last week and will not appear in this week's Ramblings.

Inflation of figures is one thing but another flack recently informed us that an eminent composer-conductor had "produced" and "staged" an actor-singer's forthcoming appearance in Las Vegas. We typed up the item and were about to submit it to N.Y. when the composer phoned us about another matter. We then discovered that not only had the composer not been approached for the assignment but he was not interested in such chores and had never even met the actor. Another artist was recently mentioned as forming his own production firm and setting up offices in Europe. We might have gone along with the item except that we noted that the talent's A&R director, mentioned in the release, was not his producer and, incidentally, labored for a competing label. In checking with the artist we discovered that not one line in the release was based on fact. The end result is that, aside from wasting an enormous amount of time in checking and re-checking, we tend to discredit a number of legitimate blurbs from the firms which have, in the past, tended to misrepresent their clients' vicissitudes of fortune.

A classic saga concerns a public relations firm which, a few years back, concocted a mythical British film producer—a Sir Geoffrey somebody who constantly cropped up in their daily press releases. Within a six month period all of the agency's clients had either conferred with him on co-production deals or had been signed to appear in full length multi-million dollar features produced by this imaginary potentate. We're told considerable space was devoted to these items until the west coast editor of Variety discovered the deception. The following day Sir Geoffrey received his greatest coverage with a full column in the obit section. A long list of the public relation firm's members and clients were named—as pallbearers.

Our "West Coast Girl of the Week" is Hedy Scott, a former Playboy "Bunny" and "Playmate" who's currently appearing in American International's "Fireball 500"—songs by Guy Hemric and Jerry Steiner with musical score by Les Baxter.

Speaking of Playboy, we're grateful to L.A. Times jazz editor Leonard Feather for touting us on Marlena Shaw who recently closed at the Playroom. New to the coast, she's one of the most attractive and inspired jazz-oriented songbirds we've encountered in a month of Mondays. Interestingly, she is not yet, to our knowledge, affiliated with a label. Strongly reminiscent of Nancy Wilson both vocally and visually, she definitely deserves the attention of major label talent scouts.

ASSOCIATION

TEMPTATIONS

August issue of Teen Mag devotes 16 pages to covering eight "supergroups" (Paul Revere and the Raiders, The Association, The Leaves, The Remains, Bobby Fuller Four, The Byrds, Young Rascals and Beau Brummels) combining a parti-colored layout with some of the coast's most stunning teen models and Teen Mag's fall fashions. . . . The Unidentified Flying Objects can be easily identified as the all girl rock group out of the east and into the Glendale's Ice House commencing Aug. 23. . . . Joan Hull, formerly associated in the promotion department of radio station 2 GB in Sydney, Australia has joined Newton-Amato-Newton as Record Promotion Manager. . . . Jimmie Rodgers, who also holds an A&R position with Dot Records, and Dick Parker, bass player with the Shenandoah Trio, have formed a partnership to jointly produce records for Dot—first venture will be Graig Carr, his initial single for the label. . . . KFWB's Disk Derby winner this past week was the Temptations' new Gordy single "Beauty is Only Skin Deep"—group just closed at The Trip with an opening night ovation that had most of the audience on its feet. And more than 300 standees outside hoping for a glimpse of the Motown men. Next Motown attraction at the Trip will be Martha and the Vandellas who open Aug. 18 for an eleven night stand. . . . Calvin Jackson, an old N.Y.U. buddy and one of America's foremost jazz pianists, opens a three week engagement at the Showplace Lounge of the Chart House Hotel in Anaheim, home of the Angels, on Aug. 15th. . . . Mike Coolidge, custom exec for Columbia on the coast, has a follow-up title for the film "Blue Max"—suggests it should be "Orange Julius."

Promo Spearheads London's FP-66 Plan

NEW YORK—London Records' latest sales program, known as FP-66 (Fall Policy Program for 1966), first introduced in mid-July as a key element of the firm's release of 26 new albums for fall merchandising, involves an usually heavy emphasis on merchandising. The plan, which incorporates "product, stability and profit," as London execs announced during four recent regional sales meetings, brings into the spotlight a volume of special promotional materials for window and in-store use, colorful printed literature and personal appearance tie-ins in addition to advertising.

A major element is a huge piece built around Phase 4 pianist Ronnie Aldrich. This unit ties in all seven current Aldrich sets on Phase 4, and is expected to come in for prime attention, in view of the artist's impending first visit to the United States in September.

Also in connection with the new Phase 4 release of six albums, is a stereo demo LP for in-store auditions of the new releases by dealers; stereo dept's; hi fi sections; audio equipment outlets etc., and a host of promotional LP's for both mono and stereo stations. AM stations will receive, in addition to samples of London's four new regular pop releases, mono versions of new Phase 4 LP's by Aldrich, Frank Chacksfield and Ted Heath.

All 26 new releases will be heavily promoted through a series of trade paper spreads and an extensive cooperative newspaper ad program. Retailers may obtain details of the program through their distributors. London itself will be advertising the new product in the Phase 4, pop, classical and international divisions in magazine advertising as well, between now and the end of the year.

The newly announced London FP-66 program is the third consecutive long-range program initiated by the firm since July of 1965. With these six-month-long programs, London execs believe sales performances become even more effective, since customers can operate with confidence that a different set of discount patterns won't suddenly be introduced to upset previous planning and stocking. The present FP-66 Program which offers generous discounts, delayed payment plans and a special 100 percent exchange arrangement on Phase 4 and the Mantovani catalog, in effect until next Dec. 31.

The Monkees Arrive

which is already in full swing, began some weeks ago with teaser ads in the trade papers with such captions as: "Everybody is going ape for the Monkees," "The Monkees is coming," and "Monkee business is big business." These teasers will also appear in teen magazines at the time the single is released. Teaser mailings to deejays and members of the press have been made, along with a special newspaper-type brochure which includes pictures and biographical information on the group.

Advertising and promotion at both the trade and consumer level will coincide with the release of the first single, and continue through the time the series debuts. Ad mats and Point-of-Sale materials, including blanket mats and miniatures, four-color counterpiece displays and window streamers are ready for use at the retail level.

Chappell Acquires 'The Pawn' Score

NEW YORK—Chappell will publish the score of the upcoming indie cinema venture, "The Pawn." The score is to be written by Mario Nasciembene, who wrote the fame film theme, "The Song Of The Barefoot Contessa," which was also published by Chappell. The picture is a Frank Sollento presentation and is being produced, written, and directed by Jean Carmen Dillow. Filming is expected to begin shortly and will be shot primarily in Rome and Vienna. Jan. 1 is the projected target date for release.

Vox To The Rescue

SPIRIT LAKE, I.—The Yardbirds, while on their current 40-city tour of the United States, found themselves in Spirit Lake with neither instruments nor amplifiers. The group's Vox equipment had been misrouted through some mishap stemming from the airline strike. T. Warren Hampton of the Vox promo department in Los Angeles arranged to have suitable Vox equipment flown in from Chicago by private aircraft. The concert went on as scheduled and, as an added note of courtesy, the Vox firm assumed all expenses incurred in the flight.

New Christy Minstrels On Summer Concert Tour

NEW YORK—The New Christy Minstrels are currently working a full summer tour schedule, working as many as 10-dates a week. The most recent appearances of the group have been in Cleveland and West Springfield, Mass. The group is solidly booked through the fall, at which time they will begin a tour of the nation's college campuses, tape several television shows, sandwich in a trip to Europe, and make numerous concert and club appearances.

'Gammera' To Have Wes Farell Score

NEW YORK—Wes Farell has composed the theme music for "Gammera, The Invincible," the upcoming World Entertainment release starring Brian Donlevy, Albert Dekker, and John Baragrey. Farell's firm, Picturetone Music, will publish the theme music from the flick. Farell has described the theme as "hard rock melody." The composer/publisher has also written the music for such tunes as "Hang On Sloopy," "Come A Little Bit Closer," "Let's Lock The Doors," and "Boys."

"Gammera The Invincible" is a joint U.S./Japan science-fiction venture scheduled for fall release.

College Conservatory of Music, University of Cincinnati, Cinicinnati, Ohio; Crane Department of Music, State University College at Potsdam, New York; Danbury State College, Danbury, Connecticut; and the University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa, received honorable mention and awards of merit.

These annual awards to promote American music are made jointly by the Federation and ASCAP.

In commenting on the Award Program, Panel Chairman Dr. Hendl said: "The Committee of Judges was highly impressed by the intensity of active interest in the writing and performance of American Music as indicated by the evidence submitted by all entries in this competition. They would like further to state that they were deeply gratified to discover that the quality of the achievements of the smaller institutions was of a high level equal to that of the larger institutions. The Committee hopes for a furthering of these high standards; and therefore recommends a continuance of this competition."

Mrs. C. Arthur Bullock, chairman of the American Music Department of the National Federation of Music Clubs, was assisted by Mrs. John H. Abild and Dr. Hattie May Butterfield, members of the Federation's Administrative Committee.

TJB Find Roads Paved With Gold

NEW YORK — Herb Alpert & his Tijuana Brass, who continue to blaze a phenomenal sales path with a total of five albums roaring on the LP charts, are also racking up a sizzling track record on their current personal appearance tour.

The current barnstorm junket by the highly popular crew is an 11-day affair with all dates completely sold out long in advance, and a gross of over $500,000 guaranteed.

Beginning in Allentown, Pa. Aug. 6-8, the ensemble took in $160,000 for six shows and then steamed into the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Conn., where they chalked up another $66,900. From there they traveled to the Forest Hills Stadium in New York (13), where TJB fans coughed up $72,000.

On Aug. 16 the group heads for the War Memorial Auditorium in Syracuse, where the purse will be $30,000, and the following day a Kleinhans Theatre appearance in Buffalo will bring in an additional $16,300. Next, the group heads across the border into the O'Keefe Center in Toronto where a three-day stand (19-21) will gross $46,000. The tour will wind up at the Carter Barron Theatre in Washington, D.C. (22-24), filling the coffers with $110,000.

Martino Marathon

NEW YORK—Even the waxing of a new album can be newsworthy when it's done a la hitmaker Al Martino. The Capitol songster appeared at the label's New York studios last week and settled down for what he considered a normal LP session, and by the end of the evening had completed a total of nine tracks for his forthcoming album, "Just Yesterday." The feat in itself is worthy of raised eyebrows, but, coupled with the fact that Martino went through the entire session with a newly-broken toe, the evening has to be considered a hard day's night for any recording artist.

Beatles

Christianity was on the decline in the modern world and that things had reached such a ridiculous state that human beings (such as The Beatles) could be worshipped more religiously by people than their own religion."

Miss Cleave said that Lennon, far from approving this type of worship, was appalled by it. She said the article which was a profile of the composer/singer/writer, appeared in England first and there was no controversy surrounding it because the entire story was used.

At a hurriedly convened press conference held on Friday, Aug. 5, at the Americana Hotel in New York, Brian Epstein, discoverer and manager of The Beatles, made the following statement:

"The quote which John Lennon made to a London columnist more than three months ago has been quoted and represented entirely out of context. Lennon is deeply interested in religion and was, at the time, having serious talks with Maureen Cleave, who is both a friend of The Beatles and a representative for the London Evening Standard, concerning religion.

"He did not mean to boast about The Beatles' fame, he meant to point out that The Beatles' effect appeared to be a more immediate one upon, certainly, the younger generation. The article, which was in depth and highly complimentary to Lennon as a person, was understood to be exclusive to the Evening Standard. It was not anticipated that it would be displayed out of context and in such a manner as it did in an American teen-age magazine.

"In the circumstances, John is deeply concerned, and regrets that people with certain religious beliefs should have been offended in any way."

Northern's Stock Decline

The affair seemed to affect quotations of stock of Northern Songs Ltd., the earnings of which are based on the popularity of its Beatles' material. At mid-way point last week, the stock was selling at $1.40, a drop from $1.64 a week before.

New Singles Smash

Sales-wise, the Beatles seem as strong as ever. Their new singles release in the U.S , "Yellow Submarine," surfaces to the number 24 spot on this week's Top 100, its initial appearance on the chart, while the flip-side, "Eleanor Rigby," stands at number 58, also new to the chart.

MIRROR IMAGE—In New York recently for his highly successful concert in the Forest Hills Music Festival, Henry Mancini did a double-take when he was introduced to German-born model Christa Doliwa, who had won the Sophia Loren look-alike contest conducted by Universal Pictures promoting their newly-released flick, "Arabesque." Mancini composed and conducted the score to the Stanley Donen production which stars Gregory Peck and Miss Loren. The LP has been released on RCA Victor Records.

Attarack Expands On Various Fronts

NEW YORK—In an expansion drive to extend its own national promotion network, Greengrass Productions has added two top record men to its staff to represent the company in the Pittsburgh and San Francisco areas, it was announced last week by Ray Harris, general manager of the Attarack subsidiary.

In San Francisco, Ron Roupe will represent the company's recording artists as well as the management clients under the wing of another Attarack subsidiary, B-J Enterprises. Roupe also brings to B-J his own artists, the Chocolate Watch Band and the E Types, which both have gained strong popularity in the Bay Area. An immediate recording schedule is planned under the direction of Greengrass A&R exec Ed Cobb.

Paul Krinock, who headquarters in Pittsburgh, joins Cobb's producing staff as well as representing Attarack for promotion in the Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Cleveland areas, according to Harris.

Krinock's first record under the new banner is his own tune, "A Little Bit of Somethin' Is Better Than A Whole Lot of Nothin,' " by the Us Group, slated for immediate release under the Greengrass releasing pact with Tower Records.

According to Harris, the Attarack companies are also forming representation deals with other top music men around the country, with the goal of having its own promotion and management staffs in every major market. Attarack previously completed reciprocal deals with Bill Lowery Enterprises in Atlanta and with Huey P. Meaux in Houston, but the two new appointments are the first actual staff additions outside the Hollywood area.

MGM'S 'Dr. Zhivago' Soundtrack LP Setting Pace In Album Drive

NEW YORK — MGM reports that in the past two weeks orders for the MGM motion picture sound track album "Doctor Zhivago" have more than doubled, moving up from a figure of 300,000 on July 31, to 600,000 as of August 15. This activity has substantially added to the five and one half million dollars worth of new release and catalog sales written at the company's convention in July. A number of factors are responsible for the sudden surge in "Zhivago" track selling, but one of the most signficant is the fact that the record breaking Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film is now in release in 81 markets around the country. The picture is likely to be the biggest money-maker of the year for M-G-M Pictures.

The "Zhivago" selling explosion has put a heavy burden on pressing and printing facilities for the company. The LP's production is complicated by its deluxe packaging—full color double-fold cover and sixteen page booklet bound into the LP cover.

Mort Nasatir, president of MGM Records, and the labels director of marketing, Lenny Scheer, estimate that "Zhivago" will easily break the one million units sold mark before the end of the year.

While "Doctor Zhivago" is the most dramatic individual album of the month for MGM Records, the company claims any number of recently released LP's that continues as steady sellers in the 100,000-plus list.

Lennie Hodes Returns From London Business Trek

NEW YORK—Lennie Hodes head of the Leonard Hodes Group has just returned from his quarterly visit to London and the Continent. Besides having his own publishing firms, Spectorious and Concertone, Hodes represents (for the USA and Canada) many of the top English publishers.

While in London several meetings were held with Charles Silver and Dick James in relationship to future activities of the Dick James Music Inc. publishing firms in the USA. Plans were made for increased exploitation of the Comet and Sweco catalogs that were purchased by the Dick James Group this past winter. These two firms contain many of the copyrights made famous by the late Nat King Cole. Other topics discussed were the placing of and acquiring for England masters for the Dick James record label Page One which is handled in England through Fontana (see Int'l News Report). Page One is currently riding high in the US with two straight hits by the Troggs "Wild Thing" and "With A Girl Like You" as well as a just released LP on American Fontana. Ideas were exchanged for the promotion of songs contained in the new Beatle LP "Revolver" and for increased American cover record activity on Lennon & McCartney songs. The continuing search for top American material for all of the other Dick James firms such as Maribus (AIR Productions of London), Gralto Music (the Hollies), Pacemaker Music (Gerry & the Pacemakers), JAEP (James, Epstein) and Dick James Music Ltd. was dealt with in great length. The future of American songs in England at this time is brighter than it has been for a long time. An open door policy will be in effect at all times by Hodes.

During his stay in London, Hodes completed a new contract to continue to represent Richard Armitage and his Noel Gay Organization. The Noel Gay Organization represents artists such as Peter & Gordon, Danny Williams, George Martin and recently signed Paul Jones former lead singer of the Manfred Mann group.

Hodes also visited with Freddie Poser and Evie Taylor of Glissando Music Ltd. who handle English artists such as Sandie Shaw, Adam Faith and songwriter, singer Chris Andrews to mention just a few.

Meetings were held with publisher Gerry Bron who also handles the English group Manfred Mann and Hodes picked up one side of the just released Manfred Mann record. Agreement was also reached for future cooperation between Bron and Hodes.

With Harold Geller of Lynn, Music Ltd an understanding was arrived at with reference to Hodes' handling of some of the future output from this firm.

Aznavour Masters Acquired By Monument For U.S. Distribution

PARIS—Monument Records has acquired 3 LP's by Charles Aznavour, from Pathe-Marconi here, it was announced last week by Fred Foster, president of the Hollywood-Nashville label, as the American label continues its global expansion plans with recordings of international favorites.

High point of the Aznavour-Monument product is that it is entirely newly-recorded with the exception of two of the 36 titles, as Aznavour didn't want any of his old masters being issued, so he arranged with Pathe for the new diskings to be made although he is currently under pact to Disques Barclay-France and his late releases have been issued in the U.S. by Reprise recently.

It was while Bobby Weiss, vice-president and director of the international division of Monument, was in Paris recently that he became aware of the availability of the Aznavour masters and negotiated for the USA release rights with EMI's Pathe-Marconi for the newly-recorded masters. Weiss, currently on an around-the-world tour for Monument also optioned a fourth album by Aznavour.

Under Al Harvey as creative director and Hal Etkin as general manager, two labels have been formed, Patty Records and Carol Records, as well as the following publishing company: Entertaining Artists of America (BMI).

Harvey Talents, Inc., a disk production division, has a deal with the Date label of Columbia Records. Its current release on Date is "Tell It To The Preacher" by London & the Bridges.

The Patty label, being distributed by Old Town Records, is bowing with "No One" by the Sunrisers, while Carol's first release is "Tsena Tsena" by Nat Brooks, orchestra leader and former NBC music director.

As creative director, Harvey will audition talent, screen new material and direct the production of masters. He has produced disks for the ABC, Glad & KC labels. Etkin, general manager and on the board of the parent firm, will supervise all business deals. He is currently in London with reps of April/Blackwood Music, which has sub-publishing rights to EAA copyrights in England and South Africa, and potential licensees for the Carol label.

Steven Scott Music, organized in 1956 by orchestra leaders Marv Kurz, Sy Menchin and Abbe Pattner, expects to gross in excess of $1½ million this year. It gives employment to more than 20,000 musicians annually.

Premier To Handle Jay Jay Catalog

NEW YORK—Premier Albums last week concluded a transaction giving it exclusive world-wide manufacturing and marketing rights of the Jay Jay line. In a joint announcement, Philip Landwehr, president of Premier, and Walter E. Jagiello, popularly known as Li'l Wally, disclosed that Premier is taking over all of the operations of Jay Jay and Drum Boy record companies of Chicago which have previously produced the extensive polka line.

At the same time, it was announced that Jagiello, who created and popularized the Li'l Wally albums, will continue to produce new albums for release under the Jay Jay-Premier arrangement. Currently, there are approximately 200 albums in the polka catalog which retail in the $3.79-$4.79 price range. Landwehr said that the Li'l Wally and other polka albums will be marketed exclusively through leading record distributors.

Landwehr reported that a "heavy new release schedule is planned for fall, 1966." The new schedule will include, in addition to several new singles, ten to twelve new albums.

The Premier acquisition of the Jay Jay and Drum Boy record lines covers uses of the existing catalog, according to the principals. They said arrangement has been made to provide an increased manufacturing, marketing, promotional base for the polka albums for which they feel the "market surface has just been scratched." Landwehr emphasized that Premier is planning to expand polka activities in many directions. He said that at present "no commitments have been concluded" covering either club deals for Li'l Wally, cartridge, tape, or foreign licensing deals. Each of these areas has a "tremendous potential," he said, and "we're considering a number of alternatives in each area."

The Premier executive stated that his study of the polka market points up the fact that it is one of the "fastest growing" segments within the record business. Dollar volume for the current year is estimated in the neighborhood of $10 million, with a growth rate of approximately 30 per cent annually.

Victor Inks Lewenthal

NEW YORK—Pianist Raymond Lewenthal has been signed to a long term exclusive recording contract with RCA Victor. For the past two-years, the artist has been performing a series of recitals (devoted to the music of Charles Valentin Alkan and Franz Liszt) throughout the United States.

"The Operatic Liszt" has been released by the diskery on the Red Seal logo. Max Wilcox will produce Lewenthal's recordings.

Lewenthal retired from public performances following a mugging in Central Park that resulted in the bones of his hands and arms being broken. He sank into a virtual obscurity similar to that of some of the compositions he now champions and re-entered the world of public performance only two years ago. This winter, in addition to his concert commitments in this country, Lewenthal will present his Liszt cycle in Europe.

COUNTRY ROUNDUP

That Buck Owens feller out in California just keeps diversifying every chance he gets. The latest Buck venture (he sure picked the right first name) is a brand new KUZZ Country Center, which will be located in the Buck Owens Enterprises Building at 405 Chester in Bakersfield. According to Eddie Briggs, the center is stocked to the sky with strictly country records and will count on handling a large mail order business as it aims toward becoming one of the largest country record dealers in the U.S. The Grand Opening will take place this week (15), unfortunately without the presence of the King himself, who'll be in Vancouver filming "The Buck Owens Story."

We hear that the Stoneman's co-managers, Jack Clement and Bob Bean, have been trying to think of a word that begins with "s" and means "traveling," so that they can add another adjective to better describe the sensational, singin', stompin' Stonemans. The family group which has been burning up the trails of late have just knocked off an appearance at Sunset Park in West Grove, Pa. (7) followed by a 6-day stand at the Okeefe Center in Toronto, which began Aug. 8. From there the entourage heads for a two-day stand (19 & 20) at the Oshkosh, Wisc. fair, with another fair on the agenda for Aug. 21 in Milwaukee. The following day the group will be back at Music City's Black Poodle. Perhaps "traveling" is not the right word. How about "stampeding"?

Back to the U.S. Army for a bit, two newcomers to the country charts, Johnny Dollar and Van Trevor were interviewed Fri. (12), also for spotlighting in the recruiting show, "The In Sound." Both artists are now being booked, out of the wheeling area, by the Wise-O-Man Agency and, from Nashville, by the Bob Neal offices.

Plenty of birthday parties scheduled for this month, including celebrations for Webb Pierce (8), Porter Wagoner (12), Justin Tubb (20), Kitty Wells (30) and the columnist's best friend Tandy Rice (16). Best wishes to all.

Dollie Records' recent signee, Willie Sampler, has just knocked off his first outing for the label, "I'm Leaving My Heartaches To Mary" b/w "Sure Was Happy Gettin' Sad." The deck is scheduled for release early next month.

It's come to our attention that the U.S. Army is marketing an LP, in line with its recruiting campaign, which contains a passel of tunes from the current hit items and is being merchandised throughout the world. The album, emceed by New York deejay Harry Harrison, is called the "In Sound" and features Johnny Paycheck's current smash, "The Lovin' Machine," as the "in" sound from the country field. Nice going, Johnny.

We're all pulling for Hubert Long Talent exec Johnny Owen, who recently suffered a heart attack, Word from the Mid-State Baptist Hospital in Nashville has it that Johnny is mending satisfactorily, and barring complications, will be leaving the hospital shortly. Naturally, his sudden illness was a shock to a great many people in the country world. Get well quick, Johnny.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

OPEN UP YOUR HEART (2:27) [Blue Book, BMI—Owens]

NO MORE ME AND YOU (2:02) [Blue Book, BMI—Owens]

BUCK OWENS (Capitol 5705)

Buck Owens and his Buckaroos haven't missed the Number 1 spot in a long time, and there's no reason why this item, called "Open Up Your Heart," shouldn't continue the tradition. A spritely, bouncy romancer, this one is a guaranteed rocket. "No More Me And You" is a slow-moving tear-tugger.

BOA CONSTRICTOR (1:45) [Hollis BMI—Silverstein]

BOTTOM OF A MOUNTAIN (2:23) [Pamper BMI—McKinnon]

JOHNNY CASH (Columbia 43763)

Johnny Cash has been going strong with his "Everybody Loves A Nut" single and LP, and promises to gobble up excellent sales via this lid, dubbed "Boa Constrictor," which is culled from that same album. A cute, nonsense ditty, the side can expect heavy airplay. "Bottom Of A Mountain" is a low-key reading of the while-back Tex Williams hit.

IT TAKES A LOT OF MONEY (2:08) [Four Star Sales BMI—Morris]

A MILLION THOUGHTS FROM MY MIND (2:20) [Pageboy SESAC—McPherson]

WARNER MACK (Decca 32004)

Warner Mack, who has been riding a red-hot trail with his last few releases, shouldn't stray from that money-making path with this stand dubbed "It Takes A Lot Of Money." Lid a rompin', stompin' novelty ditty about a feller who wants to treat his gal in style. "A Million Thoughts From My Mind" is a shufflin', twangy plea from a guy to his true love.

(That's What You Get) FOR LOVIN' ME (2:23) [Wimark & Sons ASCAP—Lightfoot]

TIME WILL TELL THE STORY (1:59) [Wilderness BMI—Jennings]

WAYLON JENNINGS (RCA Victor 8917)

Still riding pretty high with his "Time To Bum Again" winner, Waylon Jennings threatens to zip right back up the charts with this tip-top offering tabbed "(That's What You Get) For Lovin' Me." On this one, Jennings dishes up a wollopin', contagious reading of the oft-cut Gordon Lightfoot folk stanza. "Time Will Tell The Story" is a bittersweet, haunting blueser.

EARLY MORNING RAIN (2:45) [Witmark & Sons ASCAP—Lightfoot]

SLIGHTLY USED (2:08) [4 Star Sales BMI—Stewart]

GEORGE HAMILTON IV (RCA Victor 8924)

Long-time favorite George Hamilton IV, just coming off "Steel Rail Blues," is a sure-shot for big action with his superfine reading of this contemporary folk ballad called "Early Morning Rain." An excellent job by the songster on a beautiful song, the deck deserves heavy play. "Slightly Used" is a traditionally-oriented country stomper.

Newcomer Pick

HE WAS ALMOST PERSUADED (2:42) [Al Gallico BMI—Sutton, Sherrill]

I'M SENDING HIM BACK TO YOU (2:10) [Pamco BMI—Jenkins]

DONNA HARRIS (ABC 10839)

Newcomer Donna Harris can quickly establish herself on a national basis via this lid labeled "He Was Almost Persuaded." A melancholy, very pretty femme answer to the current David Houston giant, this one stands a good chance of going places. "I'm Sending Him Back To You" is a stompin', blues-filled thumper.

DANE STINIT (Sun 402)

(B+) DON'T KNOCK WHAT YOU DON'T UNDERSTAND (2:17) [Screen Gems, BMI—Addington, Reynolds] Dane Stinit could very well make a heap of noise with this thunkin', funky bouncer. Could break out big.

(B) ALWAYS ON THE GO (1:52) [Knox, Dortch, BMI—Maddox, Dortch, Stinit] Songster comes across with a lighthearted loper on the flip.

HOWARD VOKES (Vokes 103)

(B+) OLD SHEP (3:00) [Westpar BMI—Foley] Veteran country personality Howard Vokes may pull in lots of coin with this feelingful updating of the heart-rending, emotion-packed country standard.

(B) HIS LAST RIDE (2:25) [Starday BMI—Clark] On the undercut the chanter serves up a loping, tragedy-filled saga of a feller whose gold strike proves to be his downfall.

Mike Laure is one of the hottest disk acts in Mexico and several South American countries. His records have been released as singles, LP's, EP's and, in Mexico, tape cartridges, too. His best-selling record for Eduardo Baptista's Musart label is "La Banda Borracha." Laure was born in Guadalajara, where he was discovered by Musart A&R man Guillermo Acosta. Completing his first LP in his native city, Musart took him and his Comets to Mexico City, where his career really started to move. In the photo, Laure is shown during a recent engagement at the Million Dollar theatre in Los Angeles, his first personal appearance outside of Mexico.

Cash Box GREAT BRITAIN

Joe Boyd, general manager of Elektra (U.K.) Ltd. just back from New York and meetings with Jac Holzman, president of the parent company, Elektra Records Inc. Boyd was accompanied by co-director Don Johnston. Discussions centered around new releases for Britain and the visitation of Elektra artists Tom Paxton and Phil Ochs. The label's top folk artist Judy Collins returns here in September to record an album with A & R manager Josh Rifkin. She will also tour and is booked for a concert at the Royal Albert Hall on November 4th with Paxton and Ochs. The label's British operation launched in December 1965 has been very successful particularly with folk material and now, like their parent company, they are entering the pop market. Boyd reports that their double fronted album "What's Shakin'" featuring the Butterfield Blues Band and the Lovin' Spoonful (tracks recorded prior to their Kama Sutra signing) is selling very well and plans are in hand for the Paul Butterfield group to visit Britain in October when their "East West" album will be released.

Harvey Kresky, manager for Sonny & Cher, in London to finalize plans for the duo's visit in mid-August for TV dates. After a week in Britain Sonny & Cher leave for their first tour of the continent taking in Germany (August 30th-September 1st); Holland (September 2/3/4); Belgium (September 5th); Sweden (September 6/7th); Italy (September 8/9th) and France (September 10/11/12). During his stay in London, Kresky had meetings with EMI who releases Cher's recordings on Liberty and with Polydor who handles Atlantic and disks by Sonny as a solo artist and the duo. Sonny & Cher recently completed their first film "Good Times" to be premiered in America in November with a British screening scheduled for Christmas.

Since the EMI-Paul Hamlyn "Music For Pleasure" series of albums was launched last October over 2 million recordings have been sold and a spokesman for the label told Cash Box that they would certainly reach three million by the end of their first year. Available in over four thousand outlets including stores, chemists, heel bars, bowling alleys, etc. experiments carried out over the last six months have shown that there is a considerable market for the sale of records in off licenses. A chain of 45 such outlets has been built up and negotiations are under way with major brewers for further expansion in this field. MFP has a strong September release of 12 albums including "Time To Play" specially recorded for the label by pianist Russ Conway; music from two Ivor Novello musicals "King's Rhapsody" and "The Dancing Years;" "Swinging With The Four Freshmen" as well as folk, brass and childrens albums. New classical releases include Mahler's 1st Symphony, Sibelius' 2nd with the BBC Symphony Orchestra conducted by Sir Malcolm Sargent and a Brahms Concerto No. 2 by the Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Sir Adrian Boult.

To mark Ember Records 7th anniversary label chief Jeffrey Kruger is making a country wide distributor tour with the slogan "Ember Means Albums That Sell." Kruger predicts that figures for the year ended 31st August 1966 will be 30 per cent up on 1965. The autumn release comprises two singles and 14 albums to be pre-released 19th August including a double star package "Sun Stroke" featuring Jerry Lee Lewis and Carl Perkins; "Latin A-Go-Go" by Mark Wirtz. New releases on Ember's low-priced jazz series will include "Big City Blues" by Howlin' Wolf; "Driftin' Through The Blues" by John Lee Hooker plus albums by Chico Hamilton, Charlie Parker, and Carmen McCrae.

Currently in the American Cash Box Top 50 with "Alfie" the Burt Bacharach composition inspired by the film of the same name, Liberty artist Cher is also featured on the soundtrack of the film in America. She has also recorded Italian, German and Spanish versions for the film in those territories. Disk wise in Britain "Alfie" supplied Cilla Black with her biggest chart success for some time on the Parlophone label. Number is published by Famous-Chappell.

The Trini Lopez "Second Latin Album" just issued in the States is to be released here shortly. Trini, who has been in England since April filming his first straight part in "The Dirty Dozen" has been dividing his time recently between the MGM film studios and Pye's recording studios where he has been cutting tracks for his A & R manager Don Costa. Due to bad weather the film has been delayed and Lopez' manager Bullets Durgeon has had to re-arrange engagements including appearances on the Jack Benny, Dean Martin and Andy Williams TV shows and his season at the Flamingo, Las Vegas has now been postponed until November 10th.

Cash Box CANADA

Somebody's P.R. man came up with a very good bit on behalf of the new "All-Girl" deejay staff at Brampton's CHIC. The station's new staff was the subject of a lengthy film clip and description on the cross-Canada TV news on CBC, (7/8). The station is claiming a broadcasting first for their new staff, all girls, on the air around the clock at the Toronto-area station. The uproar on the Beatles and their comments went unnoticed to a great extent by the more sophisticated Canadian broadcasters in major markets across the country. Some operators, mostly in smaller centers, jumped on the "ban the Beatles bandwagon", and were able to garner a bit of publicity. One wonders, however, how they're going to gracefully get back onto the Beatles disks after all of this blows over. It would seem that any operation cannot claim to play pop music unless they play some of the Beatles disks. Paul White hasn't been too worried about developments, for the one or two stations that dropped the disks, or claimed to drop them, many more increased their exposure of Beatles records, and initiated contests to boot. The single, "Yellow Submarine," has had one of the fastest starts of any recent Beatles single. "Revolver," the LP, is expected to be another big winner, and the Canadian date on the tour appears to be a certain sell-out. Gilles Aubin is excited about London's acquisition of a couple of strong Stateside singles, "Open The Door To Your Heart" by Darrell Banks on Revilot, and "(We'll Be) United" by the Intruders on Gamble. They both showed very well to date on the U.S. pre-chart scene, with the former already a strong chart item on the C.B. "Top 100". Another new line to be distributed in Canada by London is the new Viva label. "Who Do You Think You Are" by the Shindogs is one of the very commercial, initial outings for Gilles and the London folks from the new affiliation. The good group from Saskatchewan, the Checkerlads, currently represented with a strong Gaiety entry, through RCA Victor in Canada, are reportedly set for American release through Kama Sutra. The American record label is, according to reports from the group, going to work on the "Shake Yourself Down" side by the new group. Peggy Keenan sends word that the two hottest outings currently at Vancouver's CKLG are "You Can't Hurry Love" by the Supremes and "There'll Never Be Another You" by Chris Montez. The Beach Boys will be appearing in Canada on at least two occasions shortly. They'll follow a Duluth, Minn. one niter at Canada's Lakehead on August 14th. They'll appear under the auspices of CKPR Radio at the Lakehead. Their Winnipeg date has yet to be firmed up, but one was originally scheduled. They'll be in a big show (8/18) in Vancouver's Queen Elizabeth Theatre for the CKLG Top Cats. They'll share the Vancouver bill with Chad & Jeremy and the Sun Rays. Red Robinson at Vancouver's C-FUN reports concentrated action on a new disk outing by the Tom Northcott Trio. "Eternal Triangle" is the action side of the new Northcott record, on the west coast. Well known record man. Joey Frechette takes over Sales Promotion activities at Columbia's Montreal Branch. Joey started in the biz some years ago as a member of the Beau Marks. He has since been involved in various phases of the record business.

Much of the broadcasting industry is talking about the sudden resignation from CHUM, Toronto by Allan Slaight. At the time of his departure he was a vice president in charge of programming for the Toronto pop-music outlet. He is reportedly going into business with Terry Bate in an entirely new venture, closely related to the broadcasting-advertising field in Great Britain. No word has been released yet as to a successor for Slaight at CHUM. He was generally acknowledged as the driving force behind the success of CHUM. The station is looked upon in many circles as the leading pop music outlet in all of Canada, and is held in very high esteem in U.S. circles as well. Slaight's parting with CHUM came as a complete surprise for most of the Toronto tradesters, and reportedly for the station's executives as well. He is expected to be leaving for England, bag, baggage and family by August 22nd. He will be sorely missed by many record people and similarly inclined broadcasters throughout Canada. It might just mark the beginning of a flow of talented Canadians to England. It appears Great Britain is about to undergo a major upheaval in the communications area, and the next few years will see monumental changes in their current way of doing things. Changes will occur that Canadians will be in a very good position to take part in, representing the North American way in a manner that Britons will find much easier to accept.

RCA Victor is well underway with one of the biggest promotions they have ever entered into in Canada. Subject of the promo campaign is gal, folksinger, Mart Shannon. The campaign is spearheaded by a new single, "Is He Gonna Love Me" and a new LP entitled, "You Were On My Mind." Product is some of the most commercial heard in these parts in some long time, very much in the Gale Garnett bag. The sessions were done in Nashville and really has it in the grooves. Title song from the LP is another winner. She's a big gal with a big voice, and it would appear, a very big future. Dunc Anderson, Victor's man in Winnipeg, is setting up the Marti Shannon as a pick hit for most format stations in his area, and he's getting takers. Liam Mullan indicates a very high acceptance for the new Errol Garner single on MGM at all Montreal broadcast outlets. "Affinidad," has been given high praise by CFCF music director, Bob Johnson, while June Warren at CKVL has been instrumental in the single getting an instant pick at that station. Andrews Sisters set for the Queen Elizabeth in Montreal from Aug. 8th, through 16th. Liberace will appear on two evenings at the Central Canada Exhibition in Ottawa, Aug. 19th and 20th. Busy times for Dot man Mullan as a result of these P A.'s. Newest man at Quality in Montreal is Colin Cross, who comes to the branch after a lengthy stay in record retail with "Steve's Place" chain in the Montreal area.

Now It's The 'Samba-Jovem' In Brazil

SAO PAULO—Backed by Edições Musicais RCA and Edições Musicais Victor, affiliated pubberies of the Brazilian RCA Victor, headed by general manager Bruno Quaino and A&R man José Guimarães, a group of young composers got together and decided to give form to, and organize the new "sound" that was appearing among the young generation, who although firm followers of the original Brazilian rhythms, were feeling that it was time that the teen-agers had another expression of the new sounds of international note, so much in agreement with the liveliness of the young set. Carlos Imperial, composer and popular deejay from Rio de Janeiro, one of the persons (together with Bob Côrte-Real) for the beginning of the fabulous career of the Brazilian teen idol, Roberto Carlos, reunited what was best of the young samba, and started the "action"—Chico Feitosa, singer-composer, Mário Castro Neves, composer, pianist and arranger and, last but not least, Wilson Simonal, also composer, composed the group that the RCA pubbery chose to promote the new movement. They became exclusive pacted material of the pubbery and the whole thing had started: they named it "Samba-Jóvem", which means exactly young samba, based in the expression "jóvem-guarda" which stands for "teen-music", and that is why we decided to call it "Teen-Samba"; besides, there is also a new "samba" movement, separated from the new Bossa-Nova, also called MPM (Musica Popular Moderna), which is also being promoted by the RCA pubbery, represented by composers Rossini Pinto, Walter Santos and Tereza Souza and finally Nonato Buzar. In many "discotheque" night-clubs, youngsters jumped to the dancing-floor whenever a "teen-samba" was being played, seemingly very often preferring it to imported yeah yeah yeah numbers, by the Beatles, Rolling Stones or Dave Clark Five. RCA Victor is soon releasing an album which will be a sort of a school disk, the one which will show what the new "Samba jovem" is—this will be the first of a series. The new rhythm has such a strong personality that it is felt that it will no doubt become a good export material, be it in the original instrumental arrangements (which will bring a new angle to the usual beat music from British and American origin), or in English version of the Brazilian words, easy and infectious. A good example of this is a number by Carlos Imperial, created by Wilson Simonal, and which is rapidly becoming an all-around favorite, with lots of airplay and already appearing in the local charts—it is called "Mamãe Passou Açucar Ni Mim" (of the Edições Samba, Rio de Janeiro, pubbery), which translation is "Mammy Poured Sugar On Me", being presently whistled all over Brazil.

There is also a parallel movement to this, to which Carlos Imperial is not an outsider—it is the so-called "Protest-Samba", being currently cut for RCA Victor by that composer in partnership with Nonato Buzar, and is rapidly taking its own form, independent from foreign influences and apparently very much to the taste of the Brazilian public. This will make it another winner.

MILVA TO DISCHI RICORDI: Milva, the Italian singing star, signs a contract that brings her to the Dischi Ricordi label, as Dr. Guido Rignano, general manager of the label, looks on. Milva previously recorded for Fonit-Cetra, on which she reached international fame. Her exclusive pacting is Dischi Ricordi's third major signing in the last few months. The others are Equipe 84 and Ricky Gianco. Also, Bobby Solo and Wilma Goich, recently renewed their contracts with the label. This line-up of talent figures to make Dischi Ricordi an even stronger factor on the Italian, as well as international, record scene.

English Disk Sales Continue On Upswing

LONDON—Record sales for 1966 continue to show an increase over last year and manufacturers' sales for May valued at £1,690,000 were 5 per cent higher than May 1965 with increases in both home and export figures.

Home sales rose by 3 per cent and export sales representing 16 per cent of the total were up by 20 per cent. Production-wise, the most interesting point about the May figures is that for the first time since November 1965 output of 45 r.p.m. records was higher than a year earlier.

Altogether 6,389,000 disks were pressed in May (5 per cent more than in the same month last year). 45 r.p.m. disks accounted for 3,886,000 of them. LP production continued to rise with an 8 per cent increase over the same month last year. The increase in single sales marks the beginning of the summer season which, boosted by the tourist trade, invariably gives a shot in the arm to record sales at this speed. Dealers confidently expect the trend to carry on through the summer and also report that sales have been unaffected by the Government's emergency 10 per cent increase on existing purchase tax to 27½ per cent, the full amount of which has been passed on to the consumer who now pays 7/4½d (old price 7/3d) for a single; 11/7d (11/5d) for an EP and £1. 12. 5½d (£1. 12. 0d) for an album. Budget lines remain unaffected the increase being absorbed by the manufacturer and dealer.

England's Page One Forms Label To Be Marketed By Fontana Records

LONDON—Page One Records, one of Britain's latest and most successful indie producers, has formed a label, named after the company. To hit the market Oct. 1, the label will be produced and distributed by Fontana Records, according to a long-term pact signed last week by Larry Page and Dick James and Leslie Gould, managing director of Phillips, parent company of Fontana, and Jack Baverstock of Fontana.

Since its formation last Jan., Page One has skyrocketed to the top of the British and American charts with "Wild Thing" by the Troggs, currently number 1 in Britain with "A Girl Like You." With its own label, Page One plans to enter all facets of the business. The Troggs third single will debut the label in Oct.

Cichellero Is Mgr. Of Italy's GTA Set-up

MILAN — Gigi Cichellero, formerly A/R Manager of Phonogram, is the new general manager of GTA Records and GTA Music, a new record and publishing firm. The firm started first production at the beginning of 1966. It has their own sales organization for record product, while the publishing activity involves a group of nine pubberies.

A/R manager of the record organization is the wellknown musician Giulio Libano, while coordination of the publishing field is entrusted to Umberto Prous.

Twenty-seven different artists and groups have been exclusively pacted by GTA, among them pop singer Nicola Arigliano (formerly with EMI Italiana), Renata Mauro (a well known TV actress and songstress), and a group, The Latins (formerly with RCA Italiana.).

Six different LP's have been released under the GTA trademark, along with 42 singles. This represents quite an interesting production. Of special interest is the LP series called "Free Jazz," first album of which has been released with the Steve Lacy Quartet. A second jazz release just issued is devoted to the talent of Mal Waldron.

In the pop field, there is a recording of the "Lara's Theme" from the motion picture, "Doctor Zhivago," which is obtaining a very good reaction on the Italian market, as well in many other countries of the world. The recording has been waxed by an Argentina trumpet player and arranger Al Korvin. The disc has been released in Germany, Austria, Switzerland, France, Belgium, Holland, Japan, Spain, Argentina, Brazil etc.

In the publishing field, there's an original GTA copyright entitled "Kova Tembel" ("Funny Little Hat") which has been also recorded under the GTA label, and which is obtaining a great success in Israel, while rights for sub-publication of the tune have been requested by many countries of the world. By the way, the tune will be sub-published in England and the Commonwealth by Peter Maurice of London, and in the States by Al Gallico Music of New York.

Phonogram of Holland will immediately release a recording of the tune performed by top artist Trea Dobbs, while in France there has been announced a recording of the tune by Sacha Distel. "Kova Tembel" is also a new dance which is a craze in Israel.

Among the foreign copyrights recently acquired by GTA there is the Enrico Macias and Frank Pourcel hit, "Solenzara," which is supposed to be a sure hit of the next season.

GTA Records' catalog has been already exclusively pacted in Spain, Argentina, Brazil, Turkey, Greece, Lebanon and Japan.

BRAZIL

As we published in previous columns, Wilson de Moraes, PR man of Edições Euterpe Ltda., informs that the hit number cut by Trio Esperança for the Odeon diskery—"Gasparzinho," based on the cartoon character Casper the friendly ghost—is part of the catalogue of that pubbery.

Discos Odeon, following the new promo angle through a well elaborated news bulletin, informs this time: the special promotion done around newcomer Rosa Maria, proved worthwhile, since the young chantress is among the favorites of the new "samba" of today. A new star was born! Also considered a very important step the request of British London records for special recordings for the international market, namely England, Europe and Latin America, an excellent promotion of the Brazilian music in the international music world. Exclusive chanter of the company Altemar Dutra, became an absolute favorite in Argentina and other Latin American countries, with constant requests for personal appearances, after release of his album in Spanish. For the Mantovani Silver Jubilee, Odeon promoted the "Mantovani Festival," celebrating 25 years of music activity. Many of the year's awards were won by the Odeon cast, and the same happened with the "Guarani Trophy" awarded in the "Brazilian Record Festival," by TV Record—Geraldo Vespar, best new soloist; Maestro Lyrio Panicali, best arranger; Elza Soares, best "sambista"; "Convite Ao Samba," best album; Carmen Miranda, best documentary disc; "Rosa de Ouro," best LP "samba" show; Milton Miranda, best A&R; Zoltán Merky, best technical direction. Another international success with another exclusive artist of the company—Wilson Simonal, the showman of the Brazilian TV, was present at the "Cannes Film Festival."

The CBS Do Brasil promo room sends more news, as follows: considered by the critics as one of the best releases of CBS, the album by chantress Thelma, titled "Thelma Sings Nelson Cavaquinho." Good airplay for the teen-music hit "Nunca Leve Sua Garota Ao Boliche," by newcomer Pedro Paulo. Rosely's album bow for CBS is now being released. While his new album is being prepared for release, Roberto Muller is touring the North of the country. With their album and compacts well placed in the local chart, teen-music instrumental and vocal group Renato & Seus Blue Caps (Renato wearing his controversial pony tail!), is already cutting a new LP, which will soon be released. São Paulo chanter Rinaldo Calheiros is doing well with his first 33-single for CBS. Also appearing well is Nelsinho's single with "Isquimdim-Dim" b/w "Babalaô." Popular and traditional "samba" chanter Risadinha has a new double-compact on the market. The album titled "Turn, Turn, Turn," by the teen group the Byrds, is having success above expectation, with strong number "Oh Suzanna," heading the list of hits. As requested by many, CBS released a single by US star chanter Bob Dylan, whose number "Like A Rolling Stone" is already appearing in the local charts, with possibility of going further up.

The Fermata promo announces a few more releases of the company, of the record division: introducing a new Italian songster called Leo Sardo, with a single including two of his hits—"La Sinceritá" b/w "Come Sempre"—the first number with Orchestra and Chorus of Gino Mescoli. For all dancing fans a varied "double," featuring Roberto Ferri and His Group. Already known to the Brazilian public, through previous releases and the VT imported "Shindig" TV program, Gerry and the Pacemakers appears with a new four number "double-33". After an already traditional success of previous releases, Herb Alpert & His Tijuana Brass appears with a new album, a sure success, "The Lonely Bull," in which another Brazilian number is included, Jobim's "Desafinado." Another attempt for French music penetration, with chanter-composer-guitarist-actor Sacha Distel, who recently scored an international hit with his "Monsieur Canibale," is having a good LP, called "Sous Le Ciel de Paris," in which he sings a varied selection of French standards and new numbers. A hit singer in the USA, recent Herb Alpert discovery, Chris Montez is being presented here through his well-known first album for represented A&M label.. Also from the US, vocal foursome the Four Tops, representing the Detroit sound, appears for the first time here, with a well selected album.

Alfredo Corleto's personalized PR services, now at the service of RCA Victor, is already proving its efficiency in the local disc milieu, creating new friends for the company. The recently released discs, according to Corleto's info include the "singles" by exclusive artists Meire Pavaõ, for the teen set, reforced by newcomer Tommy Standen (with Portuguese version of "Eve Of Destruction"), and for old-time lovers, we have Orlando Silva (with version of Aznavour's "La Bohême"). The excellent international RCA releases include much publicized new sound Laredo Brass; with good selection of hits, not less publicized album by Barry McGuire, with his famous "Eve Of Destruction"; still in the internationally famous line. The Mama's and the Papa's with chart number "California Dreamin' "; in the "Dynagroove" recording technique and Al "The King" Hirt trumpets his way through an excellent LP of "Our Songs." Last but not least, appears teen star Johnny Rivers with album "Whisky A Go Go," recorded "live" at that night spot and including another chart number "Susie Q."

And more news of the Discos RGE latest releases: Mike Laure's discs are sure first spotters in the Mexico charts, and the one which remained longer was the one with "La Banda Borracha," which is now being released by RGE, of the represented label "Musart"; the number is being backed by "Tiburon A La Vista." Returning to his original diskery, popular "sambista" Germano Mathias, now also a TV star (TV Record), has a typical single with "Lá No Morro," by Antonio Lopes, coupled with "Historia De Um Valente," by Nelson Cavaquinho and José Ribeiro. Comedian-composer and sometimes singer Adoniran Barbosa appears with a single with two of his usually satirical numbers "Já Fui Uma Brasa" b/w "Plac-Ti-Plac." Practically released simultaneously in Paris and here, proving the success of the representation of the Barclay label by RGE, international star of the song and composer of much talent Charles Aznavour, appears with a "double-compact" with title song "Paris Au Mois D'Aout," and three more of his compositions. Also a Barclay release, this album introduces a new interpreter of the Italian songbook, with several all-time standard favorites, called Mario Lattre. Teen star Erasmo Carlos finally has his album, which is a probable challenger for first spots, including the already present number "Você Me Avende" (a version of US hit "You Put Me On") and other sure bets, such as "Deixa De Banca" (version of "Les Cornichons") and original number by Carlos Imperial and Nonato Buzar, "O Carango."

Preparations for the "First International Festival of Popular Songs" to be held from the 20 to 30th of October in Rio de Janeiro, are taking definite form. Besides the many important Brazilian composers inscribed with great numbers of songs, some others from US, Europe and even URSS, have already been received by the organizers. Important news about the confirmation of presence of maestro Henry Mancini were also received this week. Other international names will be present at that time and we will give more news about it in subsequent columns.

The news from Irmãos Vitale pubbery is being furnished by Aloísio Santana, from Rio de Janeiro: Argentinian chanter Roberto Livi, was recently pacted by Odeon and cut a single, with strong Vitale number "Vou Dizer Que Não," penned by Cleudir Borges. Teen chanter Sergio Murillo is now of the RCA cast and cut in his single the Rossini Pinto number "O Dragão" (Vitale). Another album by popular and personality chantress Helena De Lima, cut "live" for RGE, is being released with several numbers of the Vitale catalogue. After his hit number "Capoeira De Oxalá," Carlos Lee cut for the "Musidisc" label a single with two numbers by Luiz Carlos de Sá, of the Vitale catalogue, "Canto Do Boiadeiro" and "Rei Do Quilombo." Other interpreters of Vitale numbers in their new LP, are the popular "Golden Boys" of the Odeon cast.

The news from "Companhia Brasileira De Discos" (Philips), comes once again from the general manager Alain Trossat, in Rio de Janeiro, this time prepared by his secretary C. Pinto. The great surprise promised last week by Trossat is really an enormous surprise, and news of utmost importance: a contract has been signed by the company with Warner Brothers, of the USA, for representation in this country of the "WB/Reprise" logos—soon two international hit discs will be released, with "Trini," by Trini Lopez and "Strangers In The Night," by Frank Sinatra. This last number has been cut by Fernando Pereira in a Portuguese version, for the "Polydor" affiliated label. The Tamba Trio has a new album released with an arrangement by Luiz Eça, an evolution in the pop music of Brazil, with ten cellos, in which hit numbers like "Canto De Ossanha," "Tristeza" and "Procissão" present a new important approach. As a follow up for the beginning of socialite Irene Singery's career, the newly pacted chantress of the Philips label, was invited during the cocktail-party in which her disc bow was released ("These Boots Are Made For Walkin' " b/w "The Shadow Of Your Smile"), to star in a show in the Rio boite Zum Zum with the most "Brazilian" of all Americans, choreographer Leny Dale, Also from the prominent Rio society, Jandira, daughter of State of Guanabara's Mayor Negrão de Lima, has been pacted by Philips and her first disc, with four of her own compositions, is being released. Volkswagon is interested in promoting a Latin American tour for Portuguese chanter Francisco José, Philips exclusive artist, and besides a highly paid salary, the songster will receive 2 cars as a gift—this romantic interpreter is cutting a new album with twelve of his biggest hits.

Last week we mentioned the name of choreographer Ruth Rachou, as a challenger for high position in Brazil's musical scene, through the request of Arthur Murray Dancing Studio to use her choreography of the new rhythm Jequibau, of Mário Albanese and Ciro Pereira. Now we hear that, besides her TV activities, Ruth is doing choreography for all-modern-hit-numbers for shows in successful night-spots of São Paulo (her already famous arrangement of the sequence "Can Can," "Yeah, Yeah, Yeah," "Bossa Nova" and "Polka" being commented on and appreciated). Announced is also a "Ballet For The Youth" at the "Theater Ruth Escobar," in which Ruth Rachou will dance her choreography of "Lady MacBeth" accompanied by electronic music. Several of her imaginative dance choreographies are being sent to the USA by commercial firms.

Cash Box SCANDINAVIA

DENMARK

The Mills Brothers have noted a gigantic success at the Tivoli Variety Theatre here in Copenhagen. Mørks Musikforlag, representing Dot Records here, and actually also the artists, has made arrangements for a 25-minute TV show as well as a broadcast with the group. They will also make a live LP album from their Tivoli show, including some new numbers, never before recorded by them, as well as some of their old songs in new arrangements, Knut Mørk reports to Cash Box. There is no definite title of the LP album yet, but it will probably be "The Mills Brothers Live At The Tivoli Gardens".

The British group Red Squares has just completed a tour in Denmark and is now touring Sweden. They did very well in Denmark, according to John Rasmussen of Imudico A/S, publisher of their songs here. For the last six weeks, they've been on the charts here with their "Sherry". BELGIUM

Fonior released, two or three weeks ago, a record with two songs, that a new dance can be based on: "the Santro." Titles are: "En Paris Mi Santro" and "Mi Sahara," by Los Cangaceiros d'Yvan Morice. The real result of this new dance is not already known, but we are quite sure about another experiment by this firm. They just released a new record with again a new dance: "The Hoppel Poppel." This one will surely be a big success in the Belgian dancing rooms and at the inns. The Hoppel Poppel is the work of the same people, who made "The Letkiss" popular. It's again a dance from Finland, as the Letkiss was. The firm started a big nationwide promotion on the Hoppel Poppel. We are sure about the fact, that other firms will release in the near future Hoppel Poppel records. We expect even a "race" of Hoppel Poppel records!

Philips is extremely happy about the fact, Jean Vallée won the Price prize of the Press during the European Songcup Contest in Knocke-le-Zoute, on the Belgian coast, and he won the "Festival de la Chason Francaise" (Festival of the French Songs) in Spa, Belgian Ardennes. The firm released an extended play. There is a wonderful side: "Le Grande Manitou." This gentleman can become very popular in Belgium and in France.

Les Editions Internationales Basart NV, one of the biggest and most important publishing firms from Holland, is now established in Belgium. The manager here is Alain Lelièvre, once director of sales in the record company Show Records in Aarschot. The Belgian address is: Basart, Boulevard Maurice Lemonnier, 20, Brussels. We always have known Lelièvre as a kind and very active person. Hoping he will have a lot of success. He already started with three hits of the Baden-Baden Songfestival (Germany): "Beisz Nicht Gleich In Jeden Apfel," by Wencke Myhre, the winning song; "Nur Wenn Du Bei Mir Bist," by Elise Gabbai and "Irgendjemand Liebt Auch Dich," by Roy Black. These are three tunes, which can be extremely popular in Belgium, because it's typical material, typically for Belgian people (Flemish part of the country).

Antonino Adamo, father of the European artist Salvatore Adamo, died last Sunday, while swimming in the sea on the coast of Sicily. Adamo interrupted his tour in France, to join his family at Regusa, Sicily. His father, who helped him a lot in the start of his career, was 47.

Vogue is doing very good business. Their "Stranger" hit always on the top of the charts, of course. On the Reprise label, we think they can hope for a success-song once more: "Be Anything (But Be Mine)", by Buddy Greco. "I Couldn't Live Without Your Love" by Petula Clark, is on its way to the charts too. The new one by Flemish pop-star Vick Valence: "Waarom Ben Je Alleen" en "Brief Aan Maria," can reach the charts too.

Chappell Music informed Cash Box, about the fact that Jean Vallée won both prices, mentioned in the beginning of the new column. In Belgium, Primavera has the rights on his songs but in France, so we were told by Chappell, the rights are in the hands of Chappell. For Belgium and France, Jean Miguel, a Swiss star (First Price (prize) of the Public during the "Festival de la Chanson Française" in Spa) is in Belgium and in France, a Chappell-recording artist.

Producer L. J. Van Rymenant informed us, he made summer hits—sales with "Huma La La La La" by The Pebbles and "Batman Theme," by The Jokers. These groups are playing the "Continental" in Blankenberge, on the Belgian coast, together with a third Intervox-artist, Mel Turner. Mel will have another hit with two novelty-songs: "Where Is She" and "The Whip," on the Arcade-label owned by Intervox. Same label released two well known records: "Why Don't You Take It" by The Motions and one by The Baroques.

The announced Arcade LP "The Hammond Brothers" in full stereo, not only gains big attraction in Belgium, but this album has now been sold in Holland, Australia, Italy and Scandinavia. The second album by these great organ players, has been recorded the first of August, for a release in November. The Intervox-owned Arcade label has now his nationwide distribution. Witt and Leonard have been appointed sales managers.

During this rather quiet season, SA Gramophone released some successes. We mention in the first place "Ton Nom" by Adamo, who lost his father in Sicily, a few days ago. "Paperback Writer" is still on the charts and most appreciated by the Belgian teens. The new album by Richard Anthony, will surely be on the top of the firms sales in LP's. Speaking about this Gramophone-artist: Richard Anthony had a big, big success on the stage of the Casino in Ostend, Belgian seaside. The week before we saw the same big applause in Spa, during the "Festival de la Chanson Française." He is now a big artist on stage. Really, we don't see much of artists like this French top star on the Belgian stages.

There is also a local version of "These Boots . . ." cut by the Mariachi Brass, and versions of "California Dreamin' " and "Monday Monday" by Bud Shank.

Melograf Publishers report that Music Hall, representing Reprise in Argentina, will release "On Broadway" and "I Can't Grow Peaches On The Cherry Tree" by Nancy Sinatra, with the latter being also cut by Los In for CBS. Besides, the pubbery's "Me Lo Dijo Perez" has been cut by Dany Montano on Music Hall, besides the Mexican recording by Sonia Lopez.

RCA's Juan Ramon has been inked by TV Channel 11 for its "Comienza el Show" Tuesday evening show for a series of appearances as guest star; besides, his film "Muchachos Impacientes" has been premiered with wide acceptance, and another flick, "Una Ventana Al Exito," is also ready. The diskery is now promoting the songs from "Muchachos . . ." and will also provide air play for "El Galleguito de la Cara Sucia," another film starred by Ramon.

Greeters

When Durium artist Little Tony recently arrived in England to promote his current single "Let Her Go," he was greeted and made to feel at home by Pye's Sandie Shaw and the company's A&R controller Leslie Cocks.

Sells Everywhere

Columbia's Ray Conniff, who is currently making noise with both a single and an LP titled "Somewhere My Love," recently stopped into a Swedish record shop, with his wife, and naturally found a copy of his album for sale. Conniff is also currently celebrating his tenth anniversary with Columbia.

Cash Box ITALY

Little news this week from Italy: we are in the full period of summer rest. All Italian diskeries and pubberies have closed their offices for the summer holidays, before starting the full activity of the autumn/winter production. Of course quite all the record and publishing firms have already prepared their schedule for the next season, which will start with the International Contest "Festival Delle Rose" held in Rome in the beginning of October at the Hotel Hilton. Scheduled for January 26th, 27th and 28th is the 17th edition of the San Remo Festival. Also in this case many firms have already prepared the material to present to the organizers at San Remo for the selection of the 26 songs to be performed on the stage.

In the 1967 edition of the contest 13 songs will be presented on the first night and 13 on the second. The jury will choose 7 songs each night to enter the finals. This year the journalists jury will not be formed. The 13 songs will be performed twice: by an Italian ad by a foreign artist.

Back to the Festival Delle Rose, we have not yet received the complete list of all artists who will take part in the contest: We only had the occasion of speaking with Mrs. Mintangian of Durium, who announced the participation in the Festival of their top artist Little Tony, together with Beppe Cardile, Tony Cucchiara/Nelly Fieramonti (a duo recently pacted by Durium), I Marcellos Ferial, and Isabella Iannetti.

At the same time Mrs. Mintangian has also confirmed the participation of Little Tony to the "Cantaeuropa" (the singing tour of Europe organized by Ezio Radaelli). Also Mario Zelinotti, who came in second in the "B" team of the "Cantagiro" will participate in the tour.

Durium's Little Tony is enjoying at this moment a very great popularity due to the success of his recording of "Ridera" (Italian version of the French song "Fais La Rire".)

A special promotion has been prepared by Pye for the English version of the same tune interpreted by Little Tony. The same disk has been released by CBS in the States. Sales of "Ridera" by Little Tony are steadily growing and the disk is reported at the top among the best sellers of this summer. On the Tirrenean and Adriatic coasts, as well as in all the holiday centers juke boxes are almost incessantly repeating the melody of this number as performed by Little Tony, who is therefore to be considered as one of the top protagonists of this summer season in Italy.

Speaking about protagonists of this "hot" season in our country, we have to mention Caterina Caselli of CGD. Both titles of her second disk, have obtained an enthusiastic welcome by the teenagers. The titles are "Perdono" and "Un Uomo D'Oro." This disk was released by CGD after the San Remo smash "Nessuno Mi Puo' Guidicare" which had to be considered as the moral winner of the 1966 contest.

But more than "Un Uomo D'Oro" is "Perdono" the title that has conquered the fans of Caterina, and has to be reported as one of the top best selling disks of the summer.

So while Little Tony of Durium, is to be considered as the revelation among the top male vocalists of the 1966 summer, and Caterina Caselli, is regarded as the female vocalist of this season, I Giganti of RI.FI must be considered as the top revelation of the season among the Italian groups: They have reached (in a few weeks) the top place in the best selling lists with their recording of "Tema".

But looking into our charts there are other names that we have to stress out: first of all the top RCA young artist Gianni Morandi, who for two consecutive years has always appeared on the top selling lists. Sales of his latest best selling disc "La Fisarmonica" which was at the top for many weeks, are just now slowly decreasing, and there is another disk climbing the charts "Notte Di Ferragosto" the title which Gianni presented and with which he won the 1966 edition of "Cantagiro". Together with Gianni, among the usual protagonists of our musical scene, we have to mention the name of another RCA artist, Rita Pavone, who is still listed in the charts thanks to her success "Qui Ritornera." Then there is the name of Mina (RI.FI) whose recent success is titled "Se Telefonando," followed by the pop trio of I Marcellos Ferial (Duium) with their performance of the transcription of the traditional tune "John Brown."

But there is also another new name appearing on the list of the top protagonists of this summer season in Italy: we refer to the CGD singer Tony Del Monaco, whose recent entry in the best selling charts was "Vita Mia," and now he has another of his discs listed among the top best sellers: title is "Se La Vita E' Cosi" the tune Tony Del Monaco presented to the Cantagiro.

And now we wish to mention the news of this week: first of all RCA Italiana has informed Cash Box of the release of a new single by Paul Anka. The pop American singer was a guest of Italy for two weeks, to record a new LP. In the meantime the single issued includes "Deve Essere La Nostra Estate," a tune sung in Italian that Paul Anka has performed for the Italian TV audience, during the TV show "La Trottola," one of the summer's most popular TV'ers.

RCA Italiana has also announced the release of the new success by the top French artist Charles Aznavour. He has just recorded the Italian version of "La Boheme" a tune penned by himself.

Total record production figures for the month of April hit their lowest total (excluding January which is a holiday month) for many months. The April figure dropped by some ¼ million units in comparison with March figures; the biggest collapse being in the production of singles. However, the figures for the month of May (the latest available at the time of writing) show a vast improvement over April. And production figures for the eleven month period ending in May show a gain of around ½ million units as against the eleven months ending May, 1965. Production of stereo pressings is hovering between 40 and 50 per cent of total album manufacture.

Latest single release for local group the Throb is entitled "Black." It is a re-working of the folk song "Black Is The Colour Of My True Love's Hair." The record was produced by Tony Geary on behalf of Albert Productions, and is released by EMI on their Parlophone label.

Festival Records has released the album "My Generation" by the Who on their Calendar label, which retails at $2.95. The title tune of this set was a strong hit here as a single.

From the Festival outfit we find these new locally produced singles "The End" c/w "You Still Love Him" by Ja-ar on the Kommotion label; Frankie Davidson is featured on the Sunshine label with "Leave A Little Love" and "Clap Your Hands." On the same label the Atlantics come through with "It's A Hard Life" c/w "Why Do You Treat Me Like You Do."

W & G Records are out with "Conscientious Objector" and "Don't You Know" by Keith Everett. The master was picked up from TMP-Ting Records of the United States of America; and Ron Gillespie, head of W & G, has high hopes for the success of the record here. Kath and Ron Gillespie recently became the proud parents of a baby son; they already have two daughters.

Australian-born conductor Denis Vaughan is back home to conduct an Opera season for the Elizabethan Trust. To mark the occasion, RCA has released the five-record set of Schubert Symphonies. Iris Moxley from RCA advises Cash Box that this is the first time that the entire set of Schubert Symphonies has been recorded especially for one uniform edition, all performed by the same orchestra under the same conductor, in this instance it is Denis Vaughan. RCA has released the set as a Limited Edition, shrink wrapped.

Latest local productions from W & G bring the Strangers with "Put Yourself In My Place" and "Fever"; an album by the Strangers is also expected from W & G soon. Betty McQuade's first release for the label is "Beauty Is Just Skin Deep" c/w "Dum Dum," the backing for her includes a strong front line of brass. W & G sales chief Marty Angus, reports great action on the label's album catalogue right along the Eastern coast of Australia following a sales trek ranging from Hobart in the South, to Brisbane, 2,000 miles to the North. Angus called on W & G reps in all States and advised them of forthcoming plans for the Company.

Newies from the EMI group are "Sweet Dreams" by Tommy McLain; "Visions" by Cliff Richard; "Hand Jive" by the Strangloves; "I Hear A Symphony" from the Isley Brothers. Local boy Jay Justin is out on the HMV label with "Honey, Hold Me" and "If I Had A Girl."

Local girl folk-singer Tina Date is now in Canada, where she recently taped two shows in the television series "Let's Sing Out." Tina's "Single Girl" album, released by RCA, is reported to be catching good air-play in the United States and Canada. RCA already has plans well in hand for a new album when Tina returns to Australia.

W & G has recalled their initial distributor samples of the record by Them, "Gloria's Dream" c/w "Secret Police," under instructions from the group's manager in London. Seems there is trouble with the group's name and W & G has now re-issued the disc with the artists now called the Belfast Gypsies. Air-play on the top side has been good.

Australian television and concert singing star Yvonne Barrett has her second single issued on the Go!! label through the Astor group. New one carries "Send Her Away" (a Tony Hatch song) and an original by John Farrar, a member of the Strangers, entitled "Won't Someone Say." Also new on the Go!! label is the latest from M.P.D. Limited with two originals by members of the group, "Absence Makes The Heart Grow Fonder" and "I Am What I Am." M.P.D. Limited are now on the way to England aboard the liner "Achille Lauro" with their manager Ron Blackmore. We understand the boys have several bookings already set for when they arrive in London.

As Fall Approaches

New Year's Resolutions

As fall approaches, manufacturers, distributors and operators look forward to a big buying and selling season. New products and new promotions will make their entry with horn and drum and the Coin Machine New Year will begin.

Underneath the gloss and the glory, however, problems, most of them familiar, remain. They grow more acute each year. When the bright lights of New York City went off during the power failure it was a shock. Coin machine problems, though, are not usually instantaneous; most of them have been around for a long time; their development can be traced and chronicled. The efforts to combat them can also be chronicled, and they leave something to be desired.

For instance: the introduction of the little LP, which had a difficult birth, has a good chance this year of making some money for the operator and the record manufacturer. The problem is one of distribution. Too often a particular LP, or a series of LPs are released, consumed and then become unavailable. The distribution of these items must be kept up, albums must be restocked. Albums must get to the operator. Seeing that they do would make a good CM New Year's resolution.

The shortage of trained mechanics to service newer and more complicated equipment prolongs that odious situation—Downtime. Phonograph manufacturers are making immense efforts to acquaint local servicemen with their machines. They spend money and time to keep the operator from losing money and time. The government has also lent its help in the Manpower Development Training Program, through schools in New York and through the Coin Machine Institute in Denver. But it's up to the operators and distributors to see that their men get to these schools and come out of them with the knowledge required to keep a modern machine in good shape. Seeing that they do would make another good CM New Year's resolution.

"Should five per cent appear too small/Be thankful I don't take it all/'Cause I'm the Tax Man"—so runs a current popular song. Operators and distributors are feeling the pinch of state and city levies, and the pinch could become a punch if proposed tax laws are not successfully contested. Associations are battling in the courts now to help operators keep more of their money. Support for these groups, in cash as well as conversation, must be had. Seeing that they have it would make still another good CM New Year's resolution.

A jukebox stands in a location; despite its lights and color and sound it's played only occasionally—why? Perhaps the records on it don't fit the audience. Programming for an audience's musical taste seems so obvious a requirement of the modern operator that it is surprising how often the problem appears. Since most of the records in a phonograph have a transient popularity might it not be a good idea for the operator to experiment with the tunes he puts in a machine to test the location's response?

None of the problems here discussed are new; they have been present in form small or large for years; some of them are growing and if not met and solved will cost the operator more and more money. There is Downtime and there is Downtime. Some of it is accidental and some of it is man-made. Both can be corrected, but it takes imagination and effort. A little more of both will help make this Coin Machine New Year one of the better ones.

Color-Sonics Commences Nat'l. Distribution At Promo Affair

NEW YORK — "Man, how do you move in here?" So said one of the guests at the Color-Sonics open-house party last Wednsday as he tried to squeeze, laden with a buffet plate and a cocktail, through a crowd of coin machine operators and distributors, record company executives, show business personalities and members of the trade press.

Held on the second floor of the Spindletop restaurant on West Forty-Seventh Street, the open house was called to display the new Color-Sonics audio-visual unit, a 26-selection, 8 mm. film machine. At the door, guests registered in a book, turned to face huge blown-up pictures of artists who perform on the unit, and then turned again to meet Color-Sonics president Stanley Green, who had on his arm Miss Lainie Kazan. She has made two features for the unit.

As a hostess squeezed by, carrying a tray of cocktails over her head, the crowd which formed around Green and Miss Kazan moved en masse to the machine itself, where her films were playing.

"You see the color in those films?" said Saul Knazick, marketing vice president. "Look at the quality. That's why we film at Paramount; we want a professional job." Dancers appeared on the screen, leaping and swooping towards the camera while a pinwheel of different color filters was turned so that the scene became blue, red, yellow green, turquoise and magenta. "Now, that's what I mean," said Knazick.

"I like the Lainie Kazan one," said his daughter Sherry. Kazan's film of Blues In The Night came on the screen and Miss Kazan herself came over to watch. "I haven't even seen these yet," she said. "I think you'll like them," said Knazick.

"You getting enough to eat and drink?" said Green. He pointed to the machine. "I'm proud of that. I'm proud of who's on it. It wasn't easy, at the beginning, to get stars to work for us. They were dubious about a new medium. It never worked for them in the past—didn't give them a good vehicle."

A hostess stepped up. "Would you gentlemen care for —"

"Yes, we would." Green took the cocktails. "Now, I said we were trying to line up artists, the best artists. So how would we sell them on making films for us? Answer: show them what we could do. We screened our first feature for them and it turned out to be our best salesman. Every artist and agent who saw it was impressed. That's why we've got Lainie and Nancy Sinatra and Herbie Alpert on the machine."

"We've come up with an idea for this fall. We want to film scenes from Broadway musicals; the ones that are playing and the ones that are out on the road. It would be a great promotional item for the shows. We're negotiating with the producers right now." Knazick opened the front of the machine to give a guest an inside look. "See how few parts there are? The machine is compact. You wouldn't have to worry about how to get it through the door—right?"

"We start distribution this week," said Green, "and we'll have the machine on location throughout the country in the next thirty days. We're off and rolling." He raised his glass. "Cheers."

Rowe Appoints Rowell Distribs For Alabama; Sets Service School List

■ Offices Get $25,000 Remodeling Job

The newly refurnished and redecorated main showroom of Johnny Rowell Distributors greets customers as they enter. At right, Mr. Rowell himself talks to a customer.

WHIPPANY, N. J.—Jack Harper, president of Rowe Manufacturing, has announced the appointment of Johnny Rowell Distributing Company, Birmingham, Alabama as distributor for the complete line of Rowe vending and music products. Harper stated that the appointment was made in accordance with "the Rowe pledge of maintaining the finest distributor team in the industry."

Rowell said, "We know that in the Rowe line we have absolutely the finest vending and music equipment in the business. We also know that there is a tremendous untapped sales potential in Alabama. Therefore, we feel that we are in an excellent position to serve and assist the operators in this area."

The new distributorship is housed in modern, spacious headquarters that were just remodeled at a cost of more than $25,000.00. Included in the 10,000 sq. ft. building are a very large and attractive showroom, a complete refurbishing department, parts department and general offices.

Rowell stated that he was particularly proud of his staff which includes Chuck Radcliffe, Sales Manager; Dick McGue, Service Manager; and Mrs. Marge Davis, Office Manager.

As one of the special services they will provide to Alabama operators, Rowell and McGue announced they will hold a service school on a different piece of equipment every Thursday night.

Brown Replaces Caras At Trimount; Firm Gets Bally Franchise At August 8th Outing

BOSTON—The fantastic prize giveaway slated to highlight the "11-11 Special Outing," held Monday, Aug. 8th at the Blue Hills Country Club for the 100-plus loval customers of Trimount Automatic Music, was upstaged by two startling announcements. First was the appointment that day of Dan Brown to replace Marshall Caras as the distributing firm's general manager (Caras will be leaving the organization toward the end of the month for an executive position in the industrial Education field). Second announcement was the appointment of Trimount itself as exclusive Bally distributor for the entire New England area (with the exception of Connecticut).

Brown is a 20-year veteran in the Trimount sales force. His activities delved into every major area including music, games, vending and Trimount's extensive audio installation dept. A further change in the Trimount sales picture was the appointment of coin veteran Bob Jones (formerly of Redd Dist.) to the sales team, effective Aug. 22nd.

The Blue Hills Outing drew over 150 operators and guests, according to Brown, and with every guest guaranteed to win a valuable prize, the spotlight was turned toward the "11-11" drawing. Winners of the six major prizes were as follows: Al Dugas of Dugas Vending (Webster, Mass.) won the air-conditioned Cadillac sedan; Al Jafarian of Albert Music (Haverhill, Mass.) took the Ford Mustang; Chris Caragianis of Newport Music (Newport, R.I.) went home with the RCA Color TV; Charles Baker of Hyland Music (Canton, Mass.) also took home a color TV; and both Leona Barrett of Royal Music (Webster, Mass.) and Perry Lipson of Newtown Music (Newton, Mass.) each won an all-expense-paid trip to Miami.

Britain Bumps Bill

LONDAN — A motion introduced in Parliament's House of Commons to make provisions for short-term fruit machine licensing was killed, 178 votes to 119.

J. Bruce - Gardyne, member from South Angus, introduced the amendment, saying it would help seaside and holiday resorts during their peak months in the summer.

Niall MacDermott, Financial Secretary to the Treasurer, replied that the issuing of short-term licenses would involve on-site inspection, "an intrusion which we would hope to avoid."

The new taxes levied against fruit machines, coupled with local contests over rights to locate, have been troubling British coinmen.

Bally Tops Kelly To Supervise Design

CHICAGO—Bill O'Donnell, president of Bally Manufacturing Company, Chicago, announced this week that Jerry Kelly, prominent industrial designer and stylist, has been retained on an exclusive basis to direct styling of all Bally products.

"Jerry Kelley," O'Donnell said, "was responsible for the styling of the Bally Slot Machine, generally recognized in Nevada—where some 5,000 machines are in operation—and in other parts of the world as the smartest and richest slot machine ever built. Carefully retaining the desired 'slot look,' Kelly succeeded in adding to the traditional appearance a new and exciting extravagant elegance which many casino managers claim is a strong factor in attracting play.

"Kelly has also contributed notably to the movement of pinball styling forward from the 'pop art' technique humorously criticized by Tom Buckley in his celebrated Esquire story on pinball.

"I know that in the near future Kelly will give to Bally pinball games, consoles and other products the same high style flair which won the enthusiastic approval of the casino world, operators and players alike."

Seeburg's 94th Factory School — An International Affair

The lads line up and stand inspection by field engineers Gene Michalik and Norman Steele. They disassembled, reassembled, took it apart again and put it back together again. Students at the school included delegates from Canada and West Germany, giving the Electra and Fleetwood phonos.

CHICAGO—The students attending Seeburg's 94th Factory Service School came from not only the United States this week, but as far away as West Germany. In the past two years, students came from Canada, England, Sweden, Australia, and South America.

The operators and mechanics spent the five days studying the Electra and Fleetwood Phonographs. In addition, demonstration units were available that in themselves were complete phonographs. These phonograph training aids simplify the learning process while allowing the student to work on actual equipment.

The first two days were devoted to complete disassembly, reassembly, and adjusting the mechanism. This was followed by a trouble-shooting session. The next two days were spent studying the amplifier and control circuits. This, too, was followed by a trouble-shooting session. The last day was devoted to the consolette and stepper.

A graduation dinner was held at the London House, and a short graduation exercise conducted by Freeman "Woody" Woodhull completed the week's training. The instructors for this session were Field Engineers Gene Michalik and Norman Steele.

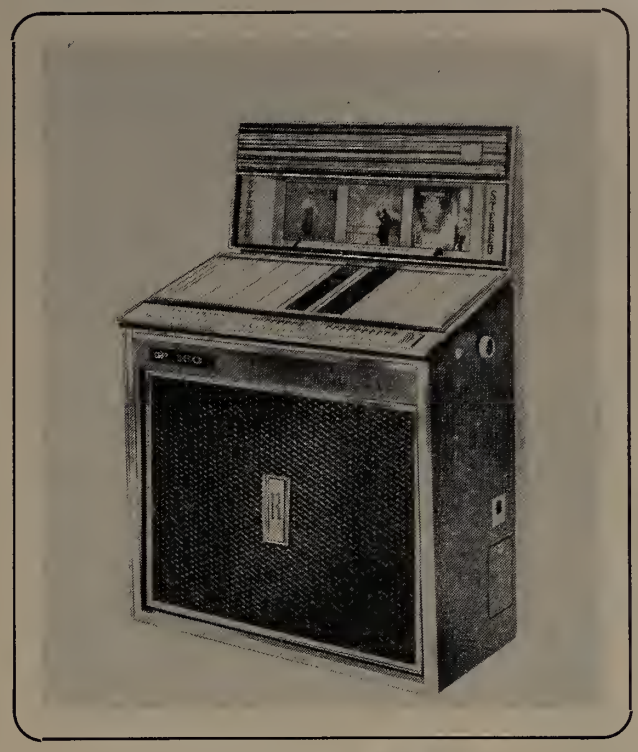
ROCK-OLA PREMIERES TWO COMPACT PHONOS

□□ GP/160 Model 432 in Compact Cabinet; 100 Selection "Coronado" Model 431 □□

Model 431, dubbed "Coronado," is Rock-Ola's entry in the compact phonograph field. With 100 selections and Little LPs, the machine is proudly described by company officials as "The Mighty Mite." Stereo-monaural intermix is standard.

"CORONADO" Model 431



Model 432 GP/160 features a high number of selections, single and LP, plus a compact cabinet, designed for locations that want "big choice with big sound in a convenient space." Rock-Ola premiere of three machines for the new sales year is unique in the coin machine industry.

GP/160 Model 432

CHICAGO—With the introduction this week of Rock-Ola's twin compact models—432 "GP-160" (160 selections) and Model 431 "Coronado" (100 selections) coin-operated phonographs, the Chicago based Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation is continuing to concentrate on a fashionable innovation in compact styling placing these new stereo-monaural units alongside Rock-Ola's model 433 "GP/Imperial" console phonograph which was internationally premiered in June.

David C. Rockola, founder and president, acclaimed the trio of phonographs, stressing the "superb styling in keeping with a current program during which we are epitomizing many years of successful growth and accomplishment in the coin-operated music business."

"This present, exciting line of three fine phonographs," he continued, "is proudly considered a hallmark of achievement never before attained or duplicated. Music operators in all of the world markets now have three fine phonographs to choose from."

Edward G. Doris, executive vice president, declared that the firm's vast network of distributors are geared for action in their respective territories, and cordially invited operators to call on their nearest Rock-Ola distributor to demonstrate the trio of phonographs and "talk a deal".

Both new compact phonographs feature polished anodized aluminum trim frames on the highly styled cabinet.

Doris explained that this equipment is "known the world over for its outstanding trouble-free operation and unusual performance record. It has been widely acclaimed for its unequaled dependability and low maintenance requirement."

Models 432 and 431 boast having the famous Rock-Ola "Mech-O-Matic" intermix which offers positive mechanical design eliminating wires, micro-switches and electronic components. The turntable speed changes are accomplished mechanically. It intermixes 33-1/3 and 45 rpm records. The vertical and lateral tracking is controlled by the exciting, new "Accu-Trac" tone arm.

Positive acting mechanical selector levers put an end to selector coil problems and sticking levers. This all-electric mechanical selector mechanism works with the Rock-Ola Revolving Record Magazine to offer the fastest selection-to-play cycle in the industry, according to Doris.

Doris detailed the network of components of both compact phonograph models. He explained that the very same "proven Rock-Ola profit features" are again standard on the 160 and 100 selection phonographs. They include: The Astatic snap-in stereo cartridge with diamond stylus, a location personalization feature, the "Record Playing" indicator; as always, complete accessibility at all times, a constant voltage transformer with 70.7 volt C.V. line for remote speakers, and separate volume controls for the phonograph and extension speakers.

There is a new tube-type stereo-monaural amplifier with tubeless automatic volume control. The AVC controls record volume variations automatically through the use of "thermisters". The use of silicon rectifiers in the amplifier and "thermisters" in the AVC circuit reduces troublesome tube replacement problems.

In accessory equipment Rock-Ola features model 1634 De Luxe "Stereo Twins" speakers. They match the acoustic qualities of both phonographs. Each speaker enclosure houses an 8 inch heavy duty bass speaker, line matching transformer and individual volume control.

Model 1765 "Common" receiver system operates with all current model Rock-Ola phonographs. It terminates the cost of multi-receiver system and inventory service. There is also an easy-to-read selector panel at the front of the phonographs. It is reportedly a full-dimensional panel, attractively inclined (selector panel) which provides a profile effect. The full dimensional sound panels provide a room-filling sound for every location.

The Rock-Ola "Phonette" wallbox, model 500, has two built in speakers in its compact stereo speaker-selector unit. It has a simple selector panel and personal volume controls for the intimate location site. "Phonette" also offers a high-medium-low control. Model 500 is for 160 selections. It is also available (model 501) for 100 selections.

Rock-Ola, traditionally the first phonograph manufacturer to premiere its new machines for the sales year, has brought out a "first-in-three" for this season. George Hincker, advertising and promotion director, said, "No other company offers the range of machines that we do. A small box, a big box and a big box in a small cabinet. The idea behind it is to give the operator and his locations the right machine for their needs."

Dr. David Rockola is the company's "Man in Europe," making several trips a year to confer with distributors. Here, with Gerard Caen, he poses in front of the new Paris showrooms of Mepadi S.A.

Eastern Flashes

1 + 2 = THREE BIG ONES FOR ROCK DISTRIBS—Rock-Ola Mfg. completed their 1966 phono lineup this week with the official release of their GP/160 and Coronado jukes. Joining with the GP/Imperial console, Rock-Ola distribs now boast three choices for music ops concerning size, looks and number of selections. All play stereo or mono, 33 or 45 rpm. . . . Polling the Rock distrib network last week, Eastern Flashes heard each and every one confirm operator enthusiasm for the recently released Imperial—with many distribs holding orders ahead of delivery, they're that popular. Now shipments of the two new compact models are arriving at the thirty-odd Rock-Ola distrib showrooms to back up the showroom display model with an inventory volume to fill initial orders—orders which the distribs expect to be heavy and stay heavy. . . . Tom Greco, up at Greco Bros. Dist. in Glasco & Albany, moving all the Rock-Ola's he can get, says the line will be in the winner's circle for sure. Tom, more than a little miffed at the Governor's veto of the New York State licensing measure, says he's going to caucus with the state's principal operators to see what steps can be taken to educate the bill's foes on the true intentions of the industry. "Our industry has tried every means possible to get this bill passed. Frankly, I'm getting a little tired of the shoddy treatment we've been getting from some people when we try our darndest to do good for this state." . . . Dave Shuman from Globe Vending (Boston Rock-Ola outlet) recently returned from a month's business gambit in Europe, says the key to success in the export market is to ship nothing but top-quality used equipment and establish this reputation with overseas clients. "Our standards are high, our clients are many and naturally, our export volume is terrific," says Dave. . . . Seacoast's Dave Stern, recently returned from a vacation with the family, divided between Cape Cod and Vermont, has moved over four carloads of Rock-Ola Imperials and looks forward to big things with the new compact units. "We've got the machines, operators know it, and business is beautiful," says the Seacoast chief. . . . Vic Conte, moving Rock-Ola phonos at a steady pace from both the Syracuse and the Utica offices, was awaiting delivery on the new machines when we spoke to him last week. Vic, who logs hundreds of miles a week visiting ops in the field (from Binghamton to the Canadian border) is also doing a land office biz with pool tables and supplies. Now handling the United Billiards lineup, Vic received 18 pieces from the Newark, N. J. factory last week but promises they won't be around long enough to gather dust.

THIS WEEK'S NEWSMAKERS—A well-attended press gathering hosted by the Color-Sonics team at New York's Spindletop Restaurant last Wednesday, heralded the introductory shipment (in volume) of the new audio-visual console to the factory's distrib network. On hand to greet the press and the interested operators were Stan Green, Hank Schwartz and Sonny Knazick from the factory and West Coast distrib Hank Leyser who jetted into the big city for the big event. Among the trade notables who dropped in for an extended looksee were Atlantic's Meyer Parkoff, Paramount's Al Miniaci, All-Tech's Justin Goldsmith, Johnny Bilotta, Ben Chicofsky and Mondial's Dick Sarkisian.

HERE AND THERE—Mr. Showbiz of coinbiz, the redoubtable Hirsh de La Viez, advised us the other day he'll be producing the MOA Talent Show for conventioneers once again this year. The big spectacular, held the concluding night of the convention at the Pick Congress, will offer mucho talent from the more prominent record companies, and along with the top showband Hirsh has engaged, will offer the trade a most memorable night. More news of show talent as the convention draws nearer. . . . Hermitage Music, down in Nashville, held open house last Tuesday & Wednesday for territorial operators and other guests and didn't they turn out? They did indeed, according to Hermitage exec George Mecysne who with Wilson Bracey and Jack Williams put on a beautiful display of the equipment they presently distribute in their Southeastern terrains. . . . American Shuffleboard's engineering whiz Gene Daddis hopped down to Lavalette, N. J. for a day last week to confer with general manager Nick Melone on some new game ideas. The Melones are currently vacationing at Lavalette where they maintain a summer home. . . . Johnny Cooper of Sheldon Sales in Buffalo was a recent visitor to the big city; was treated to an enjoyable evening on the town by Sol Lipkin. Buffalo, as you know, recently tossed out that outmoded pool table curb and now it's reported that operators in that town are concentrating almost exclusively on securing new pool locations. Distribs in the area, including Cooper (handling Irving Kaye Co. among other lines), are doing a land office business filling orders on tables and other billiard supplies. . . . Bert Betti and family sunning it up in Cape Cod right now. The distrib must be a familiar face on the resort's golf links by now. . . . Another golfer of some esteem, Banner Specialty's Jimmy Ginsburg teamed up with Mrs. Al Rodstein (Macke Variety Vending) to take top honors in the 18th Francis Middle Griscom Cup competition held at the Huntington Valley Country Club. This marks the second time in four years that Mrs. Rodstein and Jim (her son-in-law) won the cup. (The contest is a selective-drive, alternate shot format for members of the same family but of opposite sex and different generations). . . . Sam Morrison of Musical Moments warns ops not to say "down the hatch" in the presence of A-1 Records' prexy Eric Bernay. Seems Eric suffered a pretty painful accident during his recent vacation up in the 1000 Islands. While boating down the St. Lawrence in a cruiser, a channel boat passed a mite too close to Eric's craft and a wave from the big boat knocked him—you guessed it—down the proverbial hatch. No laughing matter tho, Eric almost broke his leg. As it is, he's limping 'round the store nowadays, swearing he'll go to Miami next time around. . . . Best of luck to new Rowe distrib Birmingham Johnny Rowell (see separate story). . . . More good wishes to Larry Sklar, new V-Back Shuffleboard sales exec. Larry's setting up distrib outlets in all key cities from Florida to Maine for the V-Back board promising big things in the offing (see story).

Chicago Chatter

The spotlight this week is again on Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp. with the gala premiere showing of their twin compact models—432 "GP-160" (160 selections) and model 431 "Coronado" (100 selections) phono beauties. . . . In Windy City Empire Distribs sales execs—owner Gil Kitt, vice prexy Joe Robbins, Bill Milner and Jack Burns—are proudly showing the beautiful, sound-splendrous twins to operators all over this wide area. . . . The long wait is over for Seeburg's adchief Frank Luppino, Jr. His wife, Bjorg, presented him with a 5 lb., 10 ounce son, Tuesday morning, August 9 in St. Francis Hospital in Evanston, and properly dubbed him Frank Luppino III. The Lupinos also have a two year old daughter, Elizabeth Frances (Mazel Tov, Frank and Bjorg!). An interesting sidelight to the dramatic proceedings: Frank fretted over the possibility the new arrival might reveal a streak of pre-birth stubbornness and decide to make his appearance at (MOA-NAMA) convention time.

The entire production and engineering crew of personnel is due back at Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp. August 15 after a two week plant shutdown for vacation. During the past two weeks Prexy Sam Stern, Bud Lurie and most of the executive staff has been on hand to set plans for the coming fall season and the MOA Convention and Trade Show, October 28-30, in the Pick-Congress Hotel. . . . After chatting with Prexy Eddie Ginsburg, genial Joe Kline, vice prexy Sam Gersh and Stan Levin we are convinced that all areas of coinbiz at Atlas Music Co.—music, vending and amusement equipment sales are maintaining a steady, favorable pace despite the usually weak summer season. Also, Scopitone sales continue very good, according to Stan Levin. . . . When the Romero brothers—David, L. Romero, Jr. and Raul C. Romero, of Industrias Nacionales De Sonido, S. A., in Mexico City, visited at Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp. recently they expressed their complete satisfaction over Rock-Ola's models 432 and 431, the twin compacts, which are presently being previewed on an international basis. While there the genial Romeros visited with David C. Rockola, Edward G. Doris, Dr. David R. Rockola, Donald Rockola, George Hincker and Art Janacek.

We happily welcome the return to coinbiz of Art Rapacz, the new treasurer at Midway Mfg. Co. Art was for many years controller at United Mfg. Co. He now joins Mark (Iggy) Wolverton, Hank Ross, Bob Jonesi, "Cyclone" Imre, and Ruth Sheffield. . . . On a western suburban jaunt t'other day we passed the imposing Gottlieb Memorial Hospital in the Leyden Township-Maywood area and fully comprehended the fantastic accomplishment in the edifice practically created by the prominent Gottlieb family of D. Gottlieb & Co. Dave Gottlieb, the elder statesman of the family, is justly proud of this superb accomplishment. Alvin and Nate Gottlieb, Judd Weinberg and Manny Skibell are all completely dedicated to this marvelous permanent project.

Bill O'Donnell, handsome prexy of Bally Mfg. Co., proudly announced last week that Jerry Kelly, widely renowned industrial designer and stylist will work exclusively for Bally. The Bally slot machines, so popular in Nevada, were designed by him. . . . One of the most fantastic strides in coinbiz over the past several years was undoubtedly made by the Scopitone Division of Tel-A-Sign Co. And, certainly most of the credit for this popularity must go to A. A. (Bill) Steiger, board chairman, who had a lot of faith in this popular audio-viusal coin-operated machine. Bill promises a surprise showing in the Scopitone exhibit at the upcoming MOA Convention & Trade Show. . . . Reason for the hefty upsurge in attendance at the Island View Resort, Brown's Lake, Burlington, Wisconsin, is that the ever popular musicman, Joe Cerami, has assumed direction. Joe invites all his friends in Windy City and Wisconsin to pay him a visit there for relaxation and fun in the sun. . . . H.Z. Vending's Eddie Zorinsky is laboring solo this week showing Rock-Ola's twin compact phonos while dad Hymie Zorinsky and his lovely wife are vacationing at Excelsior Springs, Missouri. . . . We hear tell that old buddy Bob Portale, of Advance Automatic Music in Los Angeles, expects to make the Windy City scene during the MOA Trade Show (and we can hardly wait to greet him here!)

CASHBOX ACCOLADES to Empire Distribs' Bob Rondeau who constantly fights the good fight in the Wisconsin-Michigan region for good, sound public relations. Bob is a tireless worker who always manages to drive home his points with sound logic and determination. . . . The sales action at World Wide continues very strong during the summer months. We learned from Nate Feinstein, Harold Schwartz, Irv Ovitz, Fred Skor, and Howie Freer that there has been no letup in sales of vending, music and amusement equipment at the northwest side distrib. . . . The word from CJA director Leo Buntman, now that this year's fund raising drive is over, is that the campaign total has reached the staggering sum of $5,601,752. . . . Dick Cole, of Ditchburn Vending Machine Distribs, is experiencing an unusually fine summer sales season with the line of compact venders, and is very optimistic about the fall outlook. He will exhibit the line at the upcoming MOA and NAMA trade shows.

Milwaukee Mentions

Operators throughout the Badger State were deeply grieved last week when the sad news of the death of veteran operator Al Radloff, Radloff Music Co., was received. Al, who was 65, leaves a widow, Ethelyn Radoff. . . . We weren't a bit surprised that Harry Jacobs shot low score (and how!) at last week's 10th Annual Music Industry Golf Outing with a cool 80. Jacobs, prexy of United, Inc., is considered the "Arnold Palmer" of coinbiz in Wisconsin. Casper Lyday, of Vi Harris Music Co., was second lowest in the running with a score of 82. Harry departed last Wednesday, August 10, for a short business trip to Green Bay. Russ Townsend and his lovely Carol are on a short vacation jaunt. . . . Sam and Jack Hastings are enjoying immediate success in sales with the new Rock-Ola twin beauties—"GP-160" 160 selections and "Coronado" 100 selections phonos, according to Jack. Jack and his family just returned from a vacation in the Big Smoky Mountains area where they visited Mammoth Cave. Sam is itchin' to run up to Northern Wisconsin for some fishin' where the "big ones" habitate. . . . Joel Kleiman is minding the store at Pioneer Sales & Services with the considerable aid of Bob Manthei and Dan Karolzik while Sam and Adie Cooper and the youngsters are on a holiday motor trip which will probably lead them to Miami Beach. Joel infos that sales on all music, vending and amusement equipment are continuing very strong despite the summer doldrums season. Heaviest action is on Rowe vending machines. . . . Nate Victor advises that the entire sales staff at S. L. London Music Co. is kept on their toes these days since all types of coin-operated equipment are in demand this summer. Sales staffers enjoying this fine summer business are Walter Koelbl, Don Emery, Walter Glish, George Faust and Carl Betz. . . . Empire Distribs' man-in-motion in Wisconsin and Michigan, Bob Rondeau, made another one of those typical swings thru the Badger State last week. While there he called on such stalwarts as Dewey Wright in Wausau and many more.

WHERE THERE'S SMOKE . . . At this writing, the city council has recommended an additional 2¢ cigarette tax in Los Angeles—obviously neglecting the fact that in other areas (New York for example, the tax revenue on cigarettes has depreciated by more than a million since the increase) this tax has not solved the need for additional city revenue. We asked Dean McMurdie of Circle International, what he thought about the possibility of boot-legging taking place. He said, "I don't think that at this time there will be a serious problem—there is one thing for sure though, each state or city that passes these increases, will only be encouraging boot-legging." Marvin Miller at Coin Machine Service tells us that, "We are preparing to convert our machines to the 40¢ price, in the very near future." The general reaction from both distributors and operators is certainly against the raise. The price would not go up until October, which will give the industry at least a couple of months to switch coin machines from the present 35¢ level, to the projected 40¢ rate per pack. Of course, no one is suggesting that Los Angeles smokers will be reducing their nicotine intake. Or to paraphrase Mark Twain, "More than one cigarette at a time is excessive smoking." . . .
HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU . . . That's what everyone was singing to Bill Happel of Badger Sales, last week when he celebrated his birthday. Leo Simone, also of that office, tells us that they are eagerly awaiting their first shipment of Chicago Coin's new one player pin ball game, "Kicker," due to arrive at any moment. Leo was very pleased to give us the news that there have been many modifications made on the Fischer pool tables. Some of the things updated include the coin shute, ball return and other numerous internal functions. Joe Duarte, who works both Badger and Duarte International, just returned from his vacation. He stole off so silently that we didn't even know that he had gone until we got news that he had returned. . . .
FROM THE RECORD RACKS . . . Talked to Buddy Robinson, of California Music, and he tells us that "Sunshine Superman" by Donovan and "Sunny" by Bobby Hebb, are both tied for the top position on the singles chart. "And Along Comes the Association" is again occupying the number one spot in the album department. . . . The Solle sisters at Luenhagen, give us the news that Bill Murphy, Columbia Los Angeles sales manager, and Clyde Jackson, both came in to check on Simon and Garfunkel's newest "Dangling Conversation." Rudy Butterfield, RCA promotion man, came by to see how "Diane, Diane" by Ronnie and the Dayonas, was doing on the charts. Fastest breaking single for them is the new Lou Rawls release "Love Is A Hurtin' Thing" on Capitol.
HERE AND THERE . . . From Simon Distributing, George Muraoka tells us that Bob Maeda and family just returned from their Seattle vacation. He also mentioned that he was looking for phonographs to fill his future export orders. . . . Talked to Dean McMurdie over at Circle International and we are very pleased to report that he has lost another three lbs. We mentioned the formula last week, so anyone that didn't read that column will never know his secret. Bill Bush just returned from his Montana vacation. Dean tells us that he has some new additions to the staff. They include, John Shaw, their vending mechanic, Irene Nakanmura and Emaline Erum, who have both joined the bookkeeping department. . . . Al Bettleman, of C. A. Robinson, was off to Vegas for a few days, with his wife, to entertain her brother and his new bride, who reside in Italy but are presently honeymooning in the U.S. Gil Kitt, of Empire Coin Machine, stopped by to say hello to Hank Tronick. . . . From Advance Automatic Sales, Bob Portale tells us that Dick Kellison has just gotten back from his vacation. . . . Marvin Miller at Coin Machine Service informs us that they have just received a shipment of All-Tech pool tables. . . . Visiting ops this week include: Virgil Rogan-San Gabriel, Harry Graham-Anaheim, Walter Cook-Palos Verdes, Bill Vessel-San Marcus, Bill Williamson-Long Beach, Harold Sharkey-Huntington Park.

Upper Mid-West Musings

Amos Miller released from St. Lukes Hospital in St. Paul, and stopping in to say hello before returning home. Feeling pretty good after getting his check up. . . . Congratulations to the John Czerniak's in Duluth on their 31st. wedding anniversary. . . . L. I. Harris, Enderlin, in the cities for a few days vacation. . . . Roy Varno, Viking Enterprises, Minneapolis, on a well deserved vacation. . . . John Galep and his family in town for the day. They having just returned last week from a vacation in Rhode Island. . . . Harry Galep and family last week left for a months trip to Lebanon to visit relatives. . . . Stan Woznak in town Thursday to see the Boston-Twins game. . . . Mr. & Mrs. D. R. Keintz in town for the day doing some shopping. . . . Robert Merrill is the guest star at the grand opening of the new 6½ million arena auditorium at Duluth. . . . Jerry Lester at the Towne House. . . . Bobby Breen at the White House. . . . Joe E. Louis at the Manor House. . . . Clayton Norberg and son Tommy in town this week to see the Twins play Boston. . . . George Andry, East Grand Forks, in town for a couple of days making the rounds. . . . Factory Report on SCOPITONE

A panoramic view of the Scopitone factory on the far southwest side of Chicago. It occupies 67,000 square feet.

CHICAGO—Prior to 1964 A. A. Steiger, board chairman of Tel-A-Sign, a major producer of point-of-purchase advertising signs, was a relatively unknown quantity in the coin machine markets. He seemed content with his business activities and accomplishments. But as the nominal head of Tel-A-Sign he began a search several years ago for an auxiliary product, and soon acquired the American continental manufacturing and distribution rights to Scopitone—a coin-operated audio-visual machine from Cameca of France. The machine itself has been on the market since 1963 with some success in Europe.

At the time Tel-A-Sign assumed the manufacturing and franchising rights Scopitone was launched in this country with a publicity campaign, ultimately opening a lot of good locations which were previously thought impossible to reach. Presently Steiger has opened company owned operations in such key market regions as Chicago (the home base), New York, Los Angeles, Baltimore and Rochester—with more to come.

Five regional sales managers (with a force of field service specialists) and other personnel of all categories service more than 75 distributors for Scopitone. Steiger places heavy emphasis on the "growing need for strong bases for distribution, capable of providing the best service in every section of the country."

Whenever Steiger discusses Scopitone he seemingly forgets all else but new film tracks, the signing of new artists—any fragment or morsel of information that concerns Scopitone and the people who are involved with it.

Commenting on the success of Scopitone Steiger said: "We have never for one moment taken this much-appreciated accomplishment for granted. A lot of effort on the part of many people produced these far-reaching results. I might add that we are constantly striving to further increase this success, although Scopitone today enjoys a very high quality control rating in all markets.

"At the time we took on the manufacture and distribution rights for this country we decided that the only route to success was to strive for nothing less that the peak of perfection. I have made it my own personal responsibility to assure our customers of this superior service."

Two factors which Steiger feels will keep Scopitone permanently on top of the coin-operated audio-visual heap are excellence in film making and a year-round factory training school program.

Top people in the film making arena are Steiger, Irving Briskin, executive producer of Harman-ee Film Productions (a former vice president of Columbia Pictures), and Paul Hunter, who edits the film in the Chicago factory. The varied activities of the Scopitone Film Distribution Center are more complex than the shipping departments of the major motion picture distribution offices. A constant check on inventory is maintained, which involves some 300 titles. Thousands of prints are shipped daily to distributors in the United States and the world.

Steiger said that thousands of prints are received from the Technicolor Laboratories which must be spot-checked, classified and tested before shipment. Production is maintained at the rate of a minimum of one new title each week from the company's production studios in Hollywood, California (Harman-ee) to be added to the growing library. Complete records are kept on all existing distributors and new ones are added as they are processed daily.

There is a wide selection of film productions for Scopitone's distributors, custom categorized, Steiger said, to fit the various geographic locations throughout the international markets.

All films are shot in 35 mm color for full clarity before being reduced to 16 mm. The films are processed and printed by Technicolor labs for top quality and high fidelity sound reproduction. Full color streamers, table tents and other promotional materials are sent regularly to the various distributors to promote Scopitone productions in locations.

The Scopitone factory training school program is under the personal guidance of Fred Leuthesser, vice president, and Scopitone plant manager.

He explained that he considers the factory training of the distributors' field service personnel "extremely important," because the factory is fully equipped with complete facilities and equipment. The entire plant engineering and sales engineering staffs are available at all times to the service training students and customer company principals who attend.

On the first and third weeks of every month the factory conducts a week long school training program for distributor field service personnel. The main purpose, according to Leuthesser, is to increase the Scopitone serviceman's qualifications to maintain, service and repair the machines in locations.

"We have had gratifying results from our factory technical training school program," Leuthesser said. "After a qualified applicant completes our training school he can handle the servicing of the distributor's Scopitones."

Steiger off-handedly dropped a hint that he will unveil a surprise at the company's exhibit at the MOA Convention and Trade Show, saying that all those attending will be given the important facts about its availability.

Meanwhile Steiger has been adding to the roster of personnel in production and sales. "Distributors," he said, "are fairly clamoring to get the facts on Scopitone for sale in their markets. This is the best indicator we have."

The revolving film magazines for the forty-selection audio visual machines are assembled on this line at the factory.

The film inventory room. With seven hundred and fifty features already in stock, and new ones being shot every day, the staff ladies have a lot of cataloging to do.

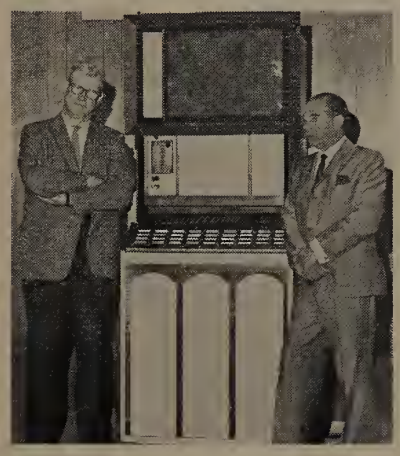
Packed and awaiting shipment, this brace of Scopitones will go to many locations, some of which were not thought possible for coin machines only a few years ago.



Standing by the finished product are Board chairman A. A. Steiger (right) and Fred Leuthesser, veep and division plant manager.

Tests for Servicemen Seen to Up Quality

CHICAGO — Modern testing procedures can greatly reduce the chance of errors in the hiring of vending route servicemen, a survey of 170 members of the National Automatic Merchandising Association (NAMA) has shown.

Data from the 170 vending operators who use the association's test system in the hiring of routemen indicate that 85 out of every 100 men employed on the basis of the tests will make good.

The NAMA testing system has been further refined recently as a result of the survey, according to Al Rodstein, chairman of the NAMA Personnel Employment and Training Committee.

"This 5-year-old member service has proven a great help and money saver to the companies which use it," Rodstein reported. "Although we had hopefully predicted a 70 per cent effectiveness for the tests, they actually proved effective in 85 per cent of the cases."

While 85 per cent of those hired through the tests will make good, 60 per cent of the routemen employed will remain on the job for a long period, Rodstein explained. The 25 per cent who are capable to do the work leave for better jobs or for other reasons. Only 15 per cent of those hired on the basis of the tests were fired by the employer.

The NAMA tests have been prepared by a testing and psychological consulting service, based on actual performance of routemen who work for NAMA operating firm members. Revisions and refinements have been added several times since the test project was first undertaken.

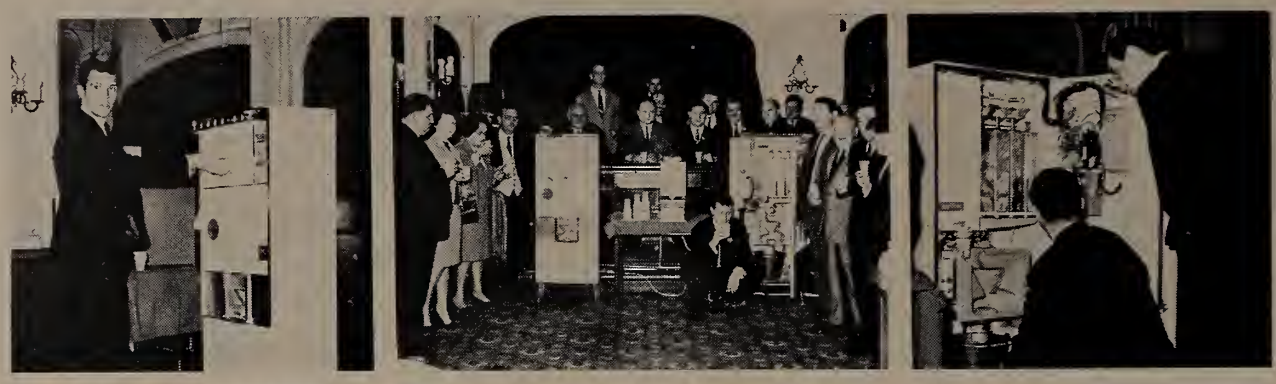
The system includes a personal history form and various standard tests which measure mechanical aptitude, the applicant's reliability and personal traits. They are designed to be scored and evaluated on the spot.

Costs involve only the purchase of the actual test material and of a basic testing kit which ranges from $12 to $36 in price, based on the size of the vending company.

The service is available only to members of NAMA, Rodstein said.

"There has been a steady increase in the number of members using this NAMA service and we hope that the new revisions will convince others that modern testing techniques can raise efficiency and profits for every vending operator," he said.

Rock-Ola Vending Products on Display at Brabo, Belgian Distributors, Brussels Open House



Belgians, like everyone else in the world, like a good cup of coffee, and in pursuit of same, are buying more and more American products, among them Rock-Ola's, whose sales in the European market are high and wide. Rock-Ola's Belgian distributors, Brabo Corporation, held an openhouse showing of Rock-Ola products in Brussels recently and, as these photographs show, interest was high. Not content with surface inspection, the guests took a look at the inner workings and as a final test, had a cup of coffee—in fact, several.

Dollar Sales, Net Income of American Tobacco Highest Ever

NEW YORK — Consolidated dollar sales and net income for the second quarter and first half of 1966 were the highest in the history of The American Tobacco Company, Robert B. Walker, president and chairman of the board, announced.

Continued increases in unit sales of Tareyton charcoal filter tip cigarettes and in Pall Mall cigarettes were important factors in the record sales results, he added. Luxury length Pall Mall filter tipped cigarettes (100 millimeters) were reduced from premium price to popular filter price at the end of the first quarter and second quarter sales showed a substantial increase, Walker said. He also pointed out that filter sales are rapidly approaching 30% of the Company's cigarette volume, three times what it was only three years ago.

Dollar sales for the second quarter of 1966 were $369,031,000 compared with $368,119,000 in the 1965 period. Second quarter net income was $23,636,000 or $.83 per Common share compared with $22,232,000 or $.75 per share in the 1965 second quarter. Figures for both years include results for Sunshine Biscuits, Inc., which is now an operating subsidiary of The American Tobacco Company.

Dollar sales for the first six months of 1966 were $706,322,000 compared with $704,272,000 in the 1965 period. First half net income was $41,504,000 or $1.46 per Common share compared with $41,296,000 or $1.40 per share in the 1965 first half. Figures for both years include operating results for Sunshine Biscuits.

Estimated taxes on income were $19,604,000 for the 1966 second quarter compared with $20,901,000 for the 1965 period and $36,444,000 for the 1966 first half compared with $38,752,000 for the 1965 period. Most of the reduction in tax expense in 1966 resulted from a change to the "flow through" treatment of investment credit. A major portion of this represents amounts deferred in prior years.

Earnings per Common share for both years are calculated on the basis of 28,446,022 Common shares outstanding at June 30, 1966.* The figure for Common shares outstanding reflects the issuance of additional shares for the acquisition of Sunshine Biscuits, which was consummated on May 31.

As usual, 1966 figures are subject to year-end audit.

*(The Company's Preferred Stock was retired July 1, 1965.)

NAC Regional Conclave Held in Seattle

SEATTLE—Despite the airline strike, 250 delegates attended the combined Northwest Regional Convention of the Theatre Owners of Oregon, Washington, Northern Idaho and Alaska and the National Association of Concessionaires, July 19-20, at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel, here.

As part of the two-day convention, NAC conducted a concessions program which had several speakers pass on profitable merchandising tips to the theatre oeprators and those interested in concessions.

Vernon B. Ryles, Jr., Popper Supply Co., Portland, Oregon, who acted as Master of Ceremonies of the NAC program, presented a series of color slides depicting many types of refreshment stands being operated throughout the country. The slides visually described the equipment layout, stand design, color design, efficiency, special effects, signs, advertising and promotion aids. Ryles narrated during the slide presentation, pointing out unusual features of each refreshment facility and cited examples of both the good and bad of each category.

He also gave a complete explanation of the current C.I.M.Y. (Concession Idea Man of the Year) Award Contest being sponsored by NAC and explained how concessionaires can benefit by entering the Contest. Winner is to receive an all-expense trip to the 1966 NAC Convention being held September 27-October 1 at the Americana Hotel, New York City.

Harold F. Chesler, Theatre Candy Dist. Co., Salt Lake City, NAC director-at-large and chairman of the association's regional meeting committee, conducted a "School of Concessions". Major purpose of the class-type session was to solve a formula described as M+M+M=MP. Three questions were proposed to the participants who were divided into separate groups with each table having a spokesman. Each question was discussed separately by each group for 10 minutes, following which the spokesman for each table related their answers to the entire group. All answers were listed on a blackboard for later discussion after a panel had chosen the best answer to each question.

The first question: "What can the theatre do to increase the gross in the concession stand?", elicited these answers: 1) Suggestive selling of extra items; 2) Customer is king; 3) Preparation, Cleanliness and Access to product; 4) auxiliary stands featuring high margin items—Popcorn and Cold Drinks, etc.

Luther Bell, western division manager, fountain syrup sales, Royal Crown Cola Company, Portland, delivered a talk on the subject: "Merchandising and People".

Heading up the committees were: Harry J. Moore, Theatre Convention Co-Chairman, Seattle and Virgil Odell, NAC Regional Vice President and NAC Convention Co-Chairman, Caldwell, Idaho.

Midway Appoints Rapacz Treasurer

ART RAPACZ

CHICAGO—Art Rapacz, former controller of United Manufacturing Company, has been appointed treasurer for Midway Manufacturing Company, in Franklin Park, Illinois, a western suburb of Windy City. Mark Wolverton, president of Midway, last week expressed his delight over Papacz' joining the firm when he made the announcement.

"Hank (Ross), Bob (Jonesi), 'Cyclone' (Imre) and I worked with Art at United years ago, and we know fully well that he rates very high in the area of business administration. He will immediately be a definite asset to our firm."

Hank Ross, vice president and director of sales, was fairly eloquent in his praise of Rapacz, who he said is "a take-over guy in administration."

Just prior to coming to Midway Mfg. Co. he was controller at Interstate Steel Company, of Des Plaines, Illinois for the past two years. Before that he was controller at United Mfg. Co. for more than six years prior to that firm's acquisition by Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp.

Rapacz is a graduate in business administration of Loyola University of Chicago. He and his wife, Theresa, reside in Chicago. They have three children.

Midway Mfg. Co. is in the process of moving into a larger, more modern plant in nearby Shiller Park.

A Boy For The Frank Luppino's

CHICAGO—Mrs. Frank Luppino, Jr. (Bjorg) gave birth to a 5 pound, 10 ounce baby boy, Tuesday morning, August 9, in St. Francis Hospital in Evanston, Illinois. The proud daddy, advertising manager of The Seeburg Corporation in this city, happily advised that the youngster was immediately named Frank Luppinio III, a prideful tribute to an elated grandpa who resides in the New York area.

The Luppinos also have a daughter, Elizabeth Frances, who last week celebrated her second birthday (August 11).

Greco For Midway

GLASCO, N.Y.—Tom Greco, executive at the Greco Brothers Distributing Co., advised last week that his firm has been appointed exclusive distributing outlet for the Midway Mfg. Co. for a 23-county territory covering much of upper New York State. The appointment became effective June 1st.

"Since our appointment," Greco stated, "we've been concentrating much of our attention on Midway's 'Premiere' shuffle alley and to our great pleasure, the game has exceeded our every expectation in both sales and re-orders."

Rowe Plus Golden Goodies Reaps Coins

"Golden goodies", a popular DJ term to describe perennially favorite teen tunes, might also be applied to the Rowe AMI 'Tropicana' phono (shown above). The juke is the favorite center of entertainment at the Riviera Shore Club located on Long Island Sound in New Rochelle, N.Y. and has been putting out a full day's work since its release in late 1963. Riviera club member Miss Heddy Albert poses with the Tropicana after selecting her favorite "golden goodie" —Dean Martin's 'You're Nobody Till Somebody Loves You.'

V-Back Shuffle Sales & Promot'n Plan Announced

NEW YORK—An entirely new look in the marketing set-up for the V-Back Shuffleboard game was revealed last week by Larry Sklar, Eastern and Southern sales director for V-Back Shuffleboard, Inc., new sales agency for Coin Amusement Co. Inc., manufacturers of the game.

The V-Back shuffleboard, which had previously been marketed in the Detroit area by Protocision Engineering, will now be sold through a national network of franchised distributors appointed by the new sales agency.

"Our marketing plans will pivot upon the territorial distributors we are now appointing," Sklar stated last week. "Our promotional plans are extensive and figure very strongly in our projected sales picture," he added.

Everything from national advertising, to arranging V-Back tournaments, to visits by sales representatives to games operators and to locations themselves is planned. "We have many ideas in the works geared to interest operators in our game and in helping our distributors move these pieces," Sklar revealed.

The sales director described the V-Back game as "the ideal combination of billiards and shuffleboard." The game, which reportedly requires the same general space on a location as a pool table, features electrically timed barricades to prevent free play. V-Back is set for 10¢ play however operators have the option of setting it on 25¢ play, Sklar advised.

"V-Back is extremely popular in the Detroit area and in the Canadian province of Ontario," Sklar stated. "Now we hope to achieve equal success all throughout the nation by means of selecting the right distributors in the right places and helping out with every promotional technique we have at hand."

Sklar is presently based at One-Stop Coin Machines on Tenth Ave. in this city where he is leasing display office space. One-Stop Coin will be the distributing outlet for the game for the territory covering New York, Southern Connecticut and northern New Jersey, Sklar advised.

Julie Stops In On Old Showbiz Pal At Davis
